10,000 FACE STARVATION IN THE CITY OF TOLEDO

HUNDREDS IN LINE FOR FREE MEALS

Food Served to Unemployed in Public Market

1,200 WOMEN AID IN WORK

Tickets Issued for Provisions—Jobless Hordes Grow

TOLEDO—(By Associated Press)—The first free meals to be served to unemployed men of Toledo today were taken advantage of by more than twelve hundred applicants, it was announced at the Social Service Federation, which is giving out 5,5000 tickets. The meals were served in a public market place. Tickets also were issued for one thousand pounds of fish and one hundred pecks of potatoes, for the men to take to their families.

John F. Cowell, city emergency director commissioner, today reiterated a statement that "at least ten thousand people in Toledo are might close to the starving line."

Nearly two hundred more were added to the list of unemployed today when a reduction in forces of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company went into effect. Twenty-five per cent of the freight crews of the Pennsylvania lines over the Toledo and Mansfield division were laid off made, the other and clerks in the Toledo freight office put on a five day a week basis.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union, thru Mrs Lulu T. Gleason, volunteered today to enlist the twelve hundred women of her organization to feeding hungry men, women and children. She planned to confer with Mayor Cornell schreiber this afternoon.

Work at odd jobs was provided for about two hundred men today, Mr. Cowell announced.

HARDING TO VISIT PACIFIC COAST

May Run Taft Close Race as "Traveling President"

WITH PRESIDENT - ELECT HARDING ENROUTE TO ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. — (By United Press)—A trip to the Pacific coast probably will be made by President-elect Harding during his administration, it was learned today.

The time of this trip is entirely uncertain, but it is expected to take place when official duties make it feasible for Harding to leave Washington for a short time. Harding did not visit the coast during his campaign and is understood to be desirous of going there at the first opportunity. It would be essentially a good will trip, made to give the west an opportunity to see him.

Harding is expected to run William Howard Taft a close race for the honors as champion "traveling president." He expects to speak in Chicago soon after his inauguration and is considering a trip to Boston. He plans to return to Marion in May to take additional Masonic work.

Harding was speeding across Kentucky and Tennessee today on his way to St Augustine, Fla., where he begins a six weeks' retreat tomorrow. The first two weeks will be spent on Senator Frelinghuysen's houseboat. He will stop at St. Augustine most of the time thereafter.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY GOOD ROADS FEDERATION

COLUMBUS — William T. Calerdine, Cincinnati, was elected president of the Ohio Good Roads Federation, it was announced here today. He succeeds Royal R. Scott of Toledo. Judge Maurice H. Donahue of the United States circuit court of appeals at Cincinnati, was named vice president; T. R. Dahl, Cleveland was re-elected treasurer and W. A. Aldorf, Columbus, secretary.

WELTY'S SUSPICION AROUSED

WASHINGTON.—Luxury-surrounded Washingtonians, "seemingly without visible means of support" have aroused the suspicion of Representative Welty, Democrat, Ohio. He introduced a bill today to require registration of lobbyists, saying the city was filled with this unexplainable "leisure" class.

The Welty proposal also sought information as to who recommended Federal Judges for nomination.

His bill would require the President to inform congress on this point in submitting nominations.

SEVEN CONSTABLES SLAIN IN BATTLE NEAR DUBLIN

Officers Meet Death as Their Motor Car Runs Into Ambuscade—Civilian Is Killed When His Home Is Raided by Mob

DUBLIN.—(By Associated Press.)—Eight men, seven of whom were constables, were shot and killed in engagements with Sinn Feiners near this city yesterday. Six of the constables met death when their motor car ran into an ambuscade, while the body of another was found near the barracks of his squad yesterday morning.

The civilian slain was shot by several men who entered his home.

Announcement has been made that in future all motor cars carrying constables, and, therefore, likely to be attacked, will carry members of the Sinn Fein as hostages. This plan has been in operation near Cork, where martial law is in force and has, it is said, acted as a preventive of attacks on parties of constabulary. Recourse to the hostage system here, where martial law has not been declared, caused general surprise.

Two three-story houses in Cork were destroyed by British army engineers yesterday as an act of official reprisal for an attack made on crown forces in their neighborhood. The buildings were shattered by dynamite and reports reaching here indicate several adjacent structures were severly damaged.

Major General Sir Edward Strickland, commander of crown troops in Ireland, stated yesterday at Cork that martial law was producing beneficial results and that arms are being surrendered by or captured from Sinn Feiners. He admitted, however, that only a handful of Irish Republican leaders had given themselves up to the British government and added that his men were most seriously handicapped by the activities of women who were carrying arms to fugitive Sinn Feiners.

JOY FOR MILADY: FUR PRICES COMING DOWN

NEW YORK—(Special)—Declines ranging from 45% on mink to 75% on marmot were registered by the average prices paid for the skins sold at the fur sale in the Masonic hall here today, the comparisons being made with the average prices brought by the same furs at the April sale of the New York Fur Auction Sales corporation.

Even the humble house cat lost caste to the tune of 55 per cent. Stone marten, Baum marten and Japanese mink also brought prices 55 per cent below the spring sale figures. Japanese marten was 50 per cent lower and hair seals declined 60 per cent.

The drop in pony skins reached 70 per cent.

THRESHERMEN TO MEET HERE, SATURDAY, FEB. 5

Northwestern Ohio Threshers' association will hold a meeting at Donze hall, Saturday, February 5. 5 MILLION DROP IN U. S. SHEEP

Decline In Numbers For Past Nine Years Shown

"SHODDY" WOOL THE CAUSE

Revealed at Merchant-Tailor-Designers' Meeting

CHICAGO, Ill. — (By Associated Press) —From the time that "shoddy" began to masquerade as virgin wool under the double standard of "all wool", sheep husbandry began to decline thruout the world, Howard E. Greene of Chicago, told the Merchant-Tailor-Designers' Association at its annual convention here today. From January 1911 to January 1920, he declared, the sheep have declined in numbers in America 5,018,000, he said.

Twenty years ago, "all wool" cloth meant cloth made from wool that had never before been manufactured," Mr. Greene said. "At that time, the shoddy manufacturers found a method whereby they were able to carbonize out of rags all except their wool content. This process gave them the excuse to call their cloth "all wool." Then arose the double standard of the term.

WOOL SUBSTITUTES

"In recent years, the practice of manufacturing "all wool" cloth from wool substitutes has grown so rapidly that, in 1919, they made up two-thirds of the raw material used in such fabrics by American mills. The chief wool substitute is shoddy—old rags, reworked in some cases as often as eight times.

"Re-worked rags may be made up into handsome fabrics. They are never used in the place of virgin wools of the same grade, but in place of virgin wools of higher grades and enter into many cloths which the purchasers have a right to believe made not only of virgin wool, but of the best virgin wool. The hooverizing of rags during the world war gave the shoddy manufacturers an unprecedented supply of raw material, yet their demand more than kept pace with the development of the rag resources.

"United States Consul Percival Gassett, stationed at Leeds, England, with access to the statistics of the world's chief rag market, has reported that the price of rags arose from 300 to more than 800 per cent between June, 1914, and December, 1919.

"In 1919, only 627,000,000 pounds of raw virgin wool were used in America. This amount makes less than 313,000,000 pounds when scoured. That year, the wool woven cloth output in America, amounted to 620,000,000 yards.

ONE-FIFTH COTTON

"It is estimated that the cotton used in wool woven goods amounts to one-fifth of the amount scoured virgin wool used. A fifth of the scoured virgin wool consumed here in 1919 amounts to 62,000,000 pounds. So, all the scoured wool manufactured for any purpose—313,000,000 pounds—together with 62,000,000 pounds of cotton would have amounted to 375,000,000 pounds, which is 400,000,000 pounds less than the quantity required to make the output of wool woven goods entirely from pure virgin wool.

"There is no way at present to arrive at the exact amount of shoddy used in cloth manufacture, because many mills which are not listed as shoddy mills make their own shoddy. Furthermore there is no known chemical test that can determine exactly how much of any given material is made up of shoddy."

DETECTIVE TRIED ON MURDER CHARGE

CLEVELAND—The first witness took the stand this morning in the trial of City Detective Charles Gallagher, charged with second degree murder in connection with the shooting of Andrew Le Boin in the latter's cafe last July. The jury, on which are four women, was completed yesterday and discharged for the day. The defense will claim the shooting was in self-defense.

PROFITEERS FLEE BEFORE MOBS

Driven to Country From Vienna By Hungry Hordes

LABOR ISSUES ULTIMATUM

Demands Cut in Prices By the Government

VIENNA — (By United Press)—Mobs, such as formed during the revolution in the streets of Paris, gathered here today, sending hundreds of frightened profiteers to the country.

Shouting threats, singing martial airs and rumbling menacingly, the mobs followed wagons on which had been erected great replicas of gallows.

Police officers, augmented by recruits from the former Austrian army, made no attempts to interfere with the marchers. The latter attempted no violence.

LABOR'S DEMAND

Meanwhile, labor organizations have served an ultimatum on the government, giving it three days in which to reduce the price of necessities.

From the temper of the crowds which marched thru the famous but dilapidated streets today, the labor threat may be followed by action It was believed possible assaults would be made on stores and provision houses, where goods would be confiscated.

The flight of profiteers left army stores closed. Windows and doors were barricaded, leading still further an air of desolation to what formerly was one of the gayest cities of the world. Authorities believed they would be able to suppress any outbreak, the police remaining loyal.

CITY OF CONTRASTS

Altho one strike of government employes was broken last week, there were further danger signs today and the government reiterated its statement that lack of help from the entente must result in collapse of the government. Vienna became more than ever a city of contrasts. While hundreds of starving persons paraded the streets with their gruesome talisman, hundreds were winning and dining in something like the old splendor. Those with money spent it recklessly and smart dining places were filled with persons careless of their kronen accompanied by handsomely gowned and jeweled women.

TRADE HALTED BY 'CREPE', CHARGE

People Confused by Housing Committees, Labor Claims

CHICAGO — (By Associated Press) — In a prepared statement made public today by the Chicago Building Trades Council, reasons are set forth why the 32 unions affiliated with the council voted not to accept any reductions in their present wage scales within the next three years. It was decided to insist on continuation of the present $1.25 an hour wage for union building workers, at a meeting of their business agents.

President Thomas S. Kearney of the Building Trades Council, said prior to the war 80,000 workmen in Chicago were members of unions affiliated with the council. Now the number has been reduced to 50,000, while only 40 per cent of them are employed and a large number have entered other lines of work more remunerative.

PEOPLE CONFUSED

"If committees appointed to rectify housing conditions would lay off hanging crepe," Mr Kearney added," the building industry would boom and within six or eight months there would be plenty of homes for every one.

"At present people are confused by the reports made by these committees and refuse to build. Some say they intend to wait until the cost of materials is reduced. Instead of decreasing, the price of material will increase.

CONTENTION MADE

"It is contended by some that in the readjustment labor should participate by offering its services at a lower wage in order to bring about production—that labor should suffer with all lines of business. Labor has suffered and is suffering now because wages have not kept pace with the increased cost of living.

"A full, honest day's work should be furnished by labor. We all know there have been abuses on the part of tradesmen, manfacturers and financial people who have taken advantage of conditions. The building trades have threshed out this subject and agreed that any workman who does not do a full, honest day's work will be disciplined by his organization."

DARNING NEEDLE PIERCES CHILD'S LIVER, HE LIVES

PORT CLINTON, O — Surgeons here today reported Milford Wright, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs August Wright, recovering nicely from an operation for the removal of a good sized darning needle from his liver.

Recently the lad fell from a piano stool and it is thought the needle penetrated his side at that time. Later he complained of a pain and an X-Ray disclosed the needle in his liver.

BRANDS CHARGES AS UNTRUE

Steel King Testifies at Probe of Shipping Board

PAID OWN BILLS, CLAIM

Answers Accusations Made by Colonel Abadie

NEW YORK — (By Associated Press) — Charles M. Schwab appeared before the Walsh congressional committee this morning and denied testimony given yesterday by Colonel E. H. Abadie, former comptroller of the United States Shipping Board, to the effect that Mr. Schwab's personal expenses for October, 1918, amounting to $260,000, were charged to the shipping board.

Mr. Schwab declared the statements were absolutely "unqualifiedly and maliciously false" and that he personally paid all his own expenses during his term of office as director general of the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

ABADIE'S CHARGES

Schwab was subpoenaed to appear before the committee to testify regarding financial transactions between the United States shipping board and the Bethlehem Steel corporation, during Mr. Schwab's incumbency as director general of the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

The summons was issued, it was said, as a result of testimony given before the committee yesterday by Colonel Abadie, to the effect that Mr. Schwab's expenses for the month of October, 1918, amounting to $260,000, were charged to the shipping board and that $100,000 of this amount was "arbitrarily charged to ship construction."

SERIOUS IRREGULARITIES

This was characterized by the witness as one of several serious irregularities that occurred during Mr. Schwab's dual position as director general of the Emergency Fleet Corporation and officials of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation. He added, however that he believed they occurred without Mr. Schwab's personal knowledge.

Eugene G. Grace, president of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, issued a statement emphatically denying that any improper payments had been made to his company while Mr. Schwab was director general of the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

Among other witnesses to be called to testify next week are: Edward N Hurley, former chairman of the shipping board: Charles E Piez, former director general of the Emergency Fleet Corporation; Commander R. D. Gatewood, head of the division of construction and repairs, and Robert Hague, his predecessor.

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — An investigation by the shipping board was in prospect today in connection with charges made against the International Mercantile Marine Company, by Senator Jones of Washington. In his address yesterday before the National Merchant Marine Association, Senator Jones, who is chairman of the senate commerce committee, declared the International Mercantile Marine in 1903 entered into a twenty year agreement with the British government to pursue "no policy injurious to the interests of the British mercantile marine or British trade."

Chairman Benson announced to delegates of the merchant marine association convention that he intended to refer the matter to his board with recommendation that any action warranted be taken. He said later that he was making efforts to obtain a copy of the agreement which was referred to and quoted by Senator Jones and which the chairman said he only heard of recently.

P. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Mercantile Marine, in replying to the Washington senator's charges, said a copy of the agreement had been referred to Secretary of the Interior Payne while he was chairman of the shipping board and that it had been approved by Mr. Payne.

STUDENT GOES ON TRIAL FOR MURDER MONDA

W. P. BRINES TO FACE COURT

University of Pennsylvania Sophomore Accused of Killing Elmer C. Drewes, Dartmouth College Senior— Women on Panel but Can't Serve as Jurors

PHILADELPHIA.—(By Associated Press.)—William P. Brines, charged with the killing of Elmer C Drewes here last fall, pleaded not guilty to two indictments in criminal court today. One charged him with first degree murder and the other with voluntary and involuntary manslaughter. Brines' trial is set for next Monday.

Altho there are eight women on the panel of jurors, none will be permitted to serve on the Brines jury because of the possibility of the jurors being locked up all night No accommodations have yet been provided for women.

Drewes, who was a senior at Dartmouth College, and Brines, a sophomore at the University of Pennsylvania were personal friends. Drewes was found dead October 17, on the outskirts of the city with a bullet hole in the forehead.

Several days later Brines' automobile was found abandoned. In the machine was a pistol. A search was made for Brines and after a lapse of a few days he surrendered to the police He was accompanied by counsel when he gave himself up

If the commonwealth has a motive for the killing of Drewes it has not disclosed it Beyond a denial that Brines had anything to do with Drewes' death, not a word has been publicly uttered by either counsel or Brines regarding the case.

OLD AGE PENSION BILL OFFERED

Introduced in Ohio Assembly by Representative Caldwell

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press) — An old age pension bill, identical to the one introduced in the last session and left on the calendar when the eighty-third assembly adjourned, was introduced in the house today by Representative J. H Chadwell of Jefferson co

The bill is the same as recommended by the health and old age pension commission appointed by Governor Cox during his second term as governor It provides for payment of a pension of $5 a week to persons after they have become 65 years of age, provided they are not receiving an income of $350 a year or over.

The applicant for a pension must be a citizen of the United States and must have been a resident of the state for 15 years. He must also be of good moral character and must not have accepted public charity within one year previous to his application. Professional beggars and tramps are barred

BOARD CREATED

A state pension board is created to consist of four members appointed by the governor for a term of four years and at a salary of $4,500 a year County boards of welfare are established in each county to be composed of the probate judge, a judge of the common pleas court and the county auditor. These boards would employ a welfare director one half of whose salary would be paid out of the state fund. All applications would be made to the county welfare board and pensions paid thru this board, with provisions for an appeal to the state commission

The old age pension bill is backed by organized labor and many welfare organizations of the state.

HAVE PRETTY BABY? CHANCE FOR IT TO WIN $25 CASH

HAVE you a baby?

If so, here is a chance to win a prize of $25 for the little one's bank.

All that is necessary is for you to send your baby's picture to the Contest Editor of The Lima News with his or her name and the name and address of parents written or securely fastened to the back of photos

This contest is prompted by the presentation here by the Sigma theatre of "A CHILD FOR SALE," which will be shown for five days, beginning Sunday.

In the cast of this picture is Miss Ruth Sullivan. "Baby Ruth," as she is known, is only four years old but is one of the cleverest and prettiest baby performers on the screen.

It is believed that there are in Lima a number of babies as pretty, if not prettier, than those to be found in the movies. It is for that reason that this paper has arranged the contest.

Competent judges will be chosen and in case there is a tie, the prize will be equally divided.

The contest is open now Mail photos of your babies at once All must be in the hands of the Contest Editor by noon Monday to be considered The winner will be announced in The Lima News next Tuesday

TAGS MOVE SLOW

About Half Total Auto Owners Have 1921 Licenses

The high cost of operating automobiles is evidently playing havoc with auto owners in Allen co

Only 4500 license tags have been issued thus far this year by J. C Thompson the authorized distributor for this county, compared with 8000, which were sold at this time last year.

Thompson states that hundreds have laid up their cars despite favorable weather we have had so far this winter Notice has been given that next Wednesday will be the last day anyone driving a car will be allowed to use the 1926 tags.

Identification cards are being mailed out by Thompson, who says that every auto owner who obtained licenses from him will receive a card within two weeks These cards are being sent out from the Lima agency this year to save time. Last car they were mailed from the secretary of state's office and due to much confusion, many did not receive their cards.

WOMAN NERVOUS, COULDN'T SERVE

Plea in Pennsylvania Court to Escape Jury Duty

HARRSBURG, Pa. — "Too nervous" was given as the excuse for the non-appearance at the Dauphin Co Criminal court of Mrs. Marian King Deatrick, of Middletown, the first woman drawn for jury duty in the county. The plea for her excuse from jury duty was made by an attorney, who presented an affidavit signed by the woman's physician stating that she was too nervous for jury duty.

"Evidently the doctor struggled pretty hard to reach these conclusions," remarked Judge Hergest to the woman's lawyer.

"You mean that she doesn't want to come to court," commented Judge Wickersham.

"Women wanted to take their part in the administration of the affairs of government and now they have the right and with that right comes the responsibility to assume the full share in such matters," continued Judge Hargest. "Jury duty is one of them."

The Court then ordered the woman's attorney to have her physician in court for examination as to her fitness for jury duty.

HUSBAND CARED ONLY FOR GOOD TIME, WIFE SAYS IN DIVORCE SUIT

Clarence Sawmiller, Forest-ave and Second-st gave little thought to his wife or home, caring only for a good time, according to allegations made by his wife, Amy Sawmiller in court. She filed suit for divorce, Thursday afternoon.

She says he was a frequent attendant at dances and picture shows failing to provide her clothing and medical attention. She was Amy Litzenberger before her marriage in Lima on September 13, 1919. They have no children.

B. Franklin Lambert secured an order from the court to rescind and modify former orders and decrees of the court in the divorce which Alta Stringfellow Labert secured. The case is set for hearing January 29 at 9 o'clock.

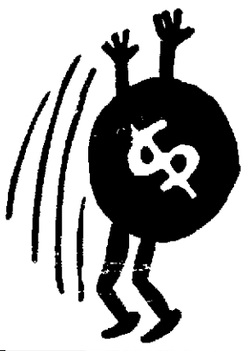
BIG REMODELING SALE

SATURDAY BARGAINS AT LIMA'S BEST STORE!



SATURDAY—Some folks have been hesitating to buy things they actually needed because they thought that prices would reach a lower level. In November they said "Let's wait till December, the merchants will have their prices down." It is true; prices have come down to a certain extent and there is no outlook that prices will be any lower than they are today at the Leader Store. In some instances merchandise has already advanced wholesale.

However there is no reason waiting to buy any goods that you actually need because for tomorrow we are quoting low prices on fine quality goods. If you scan this advertisement carefully we are quite sure that you will find items at prices that will make every purchase a decided savings on goods that you will buy later. Our honest opinion is, that you buy and keep the wheels of industry turning to bring back the days of Normalcy.

E. H. Dorsey Buys Holland Property on W. Spring-st

Thru a real estate transaction just completed, E. H. Dorsey, of the Automotive Sales Co., purchased from R. B. Holland property on W. Spring-st, 100 feet from Main st, with a frontage of 50 feet and 100 feet deep, for a consideration of $17,500.

At present there exists on the property a frame dwelling which is being used as an office by Pool and Peltier, real estate dealers.

Dorsey said Friday he intends to erect a modern two story brick building on the site, as soon as contractors are able to start work when the weather opens up.

The upper story of the building will provide two flats. The lower floor will be used as a store room, but Mr. Dorsey was undecided Friday just what sort of business will occupy the space.

CREMEAN RESIGNS

Deputy Oil Inspector Anticipates New Chief "Oiler"

G. Dale Cremean, deputy inspector for the third district of Ohio comprising Allen and Putnam cos and part of Van Wert and Auglaize Friday filed his resignation with State Oil Inspector William H. Walker, appointed by Governor Harry L. Davis, to succeed Charles L. Rush, peremptorily ousted by the governor when he refused to reduce the number of inspectors from 40 to four.

Walker promptly arranged to carry out the governor's order for the dismissal of deputies and discharges are expected to go to the deputies Saturday. Cremean, who served as the local deputy for a year and a half, decided that to signing is better than being fired.

After the firing process is completed, according to dispatches from Columbus Friday, there'll be only one man in the state of Ohio with authority to inspect shipments of oil and that will be William H. Walker, the chief inspector.

CONTRACTOR SUES

Claims $1,500 For Concrete Work on White Way

B. C. Frysinger, cement contractor, has sued to foreclose a lien whereby money claimed owing to the Westinghouse Electric manufacturing company for Lima's new boulevard lighting system may be paid to him. Frysinger says there is $1,500 yet due on his contract.

The petition, filed Friday, sets forth the Westinghouse company, Pittsburgh, sub-let the contract to the Northern Electric company for installing the ornamental street lighting system. Frysinger says he was employed to provide labor and material for the concrete bases for the light standards and to replace the sidewalks where torn up to install the posts.

He charges he has received but $1,000 of his pay. He had filed a mechanics lien for the remainder. It is the lien he asks be foreclosed and that moneys now in the hands of the city, due to the contracting firm be paid to him to settle his claim.

PAUL CARRINO HELD ON CHARGE BY HELEN EARLY

Paul Carrino, Italian, is held to common pleas court in the sum of $300, bound over from Justice Botkin's court on a paternity charge. Helen Early, 17, daughter of Mrs. James Early, 563 S. Main-st, was complainant. She told Justice Botkin she met the Italian at a dance on Spring-st. Before the justice, she testified she remained over night with a woman named Blanche Lehman and was taken from the house by police when Mrs. Lehman's place was raided.

FACTORY PRICES ON MEN'S, WOMEN'S AND CHILDREN'S HOSE TODAY ARE HIGHER THAN QUOTED AT CARTER & CARROL'S MILL END SALE. WE ADVISE YOU TO PURCHASE AT LEAST A THREE MONTHS' SUPPLY. SALE ENDS TOMORROW NIGHT.

Cotton, Copper, Silver, Silk, Beef and Rubber

Are now selling in the markets BELOW their present cost of production. We have deflation, but any sane person knows that merchandise or materials can not long sell below cost of reproduction.

Prices, except on a few designated articles, in which hardware and refined oils may be included, have reached a new level and will become stabilized. Shoppers are now buying cheaper than they will later even after labor has met the crisis.

The outlook for labor the country over is not serious. There is no attempt on the part of employers to slash wages. Employers are offering reduced scales in many lines, but these are found to be only twenty percent on the average. Living costs have declined far greater than twenty percent, so that wage scales this spring and summer even twenty percent lower will make living easier than at any time since 1916.

We are passing thru strenuous times. Lima and Mansfield are the only two cities in Ohio, travelling men state, which still show prosperity. Employers and employees alike should congratulate themselves and with the resumption of buying, the business world will soon be back on its feet.

Readers of this paper can safely purchase articles as advertised in a knowledge that they will never be lower. If you have waited for the bottom in anything from toothpicks to real estate, the bottom is now at your service.

'TRUTH DETECTOR' SAD FOR HUBBY

Little Device Used to Photograph His Voice

CAN'T FOOL THE WIFEY NOW

Story of Being Detained at Office Won't Go

DETROIT, Mich. — Husbands of the near future, listen to this:

When you come home and tell wifey you were unavoidably detained at the office be careful, for she may have a little "truth detector" in her home.

The "truth detector" is a possibility, said Professor Dayton C. Miller, D. S. C., of the Case School of Applied Science, speaking before a large gathering of members of the Detroit Engineering Society in the Board of Commerce

By it wifey would be able to take pictures of your voice Thru study of the pictures she would know whether you were really at the office or were imbibing less than 2 1-2 per cent at a cabaret, with perhaps a little chicken on the side.

Professor Dayton had many pictures of sound, which he made while studying shel shock and allied problems for the United States ordnance corps during the war.

When he was young Dr. Dayton started out to study the flute, silver, gold and wood, to determine which was best, and why He is approaching the Winter of life and has never had time to determine the problem of the flute but he did find out why Caruso burst a blood vessel and why the report of a great rifle can kill a man

SIMPLE MATTER

To find out why Caruso burst a blood vessel was a simple matter. He took a picture of the sounds of a phonograph playing the sextet from Lucia. It showed Caruso burst a blood vessel for the same reason a howitzer report shell shocks a man.

In other words, when a howitzer is fired there is resulting displacement of air by the projectile, the flash of powder and the report of the explosion. If serious enough or sharp enough, the air displacement discommodes the internal organs in the chest of a man with the first, or positive, report, and when this is followed by the next, or negative, report, there is a rush of blood to the head, with the foregone result.

The photograph of the sextet from Lucia shows that Caruso's voice has a sharper, more explosive and higher report than any other human voice and most musical instruments.

Therefore the explosion of Caruso's voice burst the blood vessel in his head.

'GIVE ME JAIL' IS EMMA'S PLEA

Anarchist Quoted as Saying it Beats Russia

SAYS SHE LONGS FOR U. S.

Socialist Tells of Visit With Miss Goldman

BY MILTON BRONNER

LONDON — mma Goldman told me she would rather spend 10 years in an American jail than five years in so-called free Russia.'

This comes from Morris Schwartz of Oakland, Cal who went to Russia to study conditions with a view to reporting them to the American Socialist party.

Schwartz and his wife were imprisoned for several months because he voiced sentiments not to the liking of the Bolshevik government Mrs Schwartz died at Reval, Dec 20, as a result of hardships.

Schwartz told of dining with Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman who were deported from America for pro Bolshevik activities in their hotel.

WANTS TO COME BACK

"I also talked with many other anarchists who were deported by America and all wished they were back in the United States Schwartz said.

"Some still insisted they would like to try an experiment of real anarchism or communism but the, complained Russia is a land of Leninism and Trotzkyism where few are masters and millions are subjects.'

'Just what sort of a government has Russia then ' I inquired.

"A monstrous tyranny" ruled by those on top, who force ever body else into the army or the work shops.'

'How is the food supply?'

"Well Miss Goldman and Berkman seemed well fed But while the soviets and their agents get the best the masses get the worst.'

'The late John Reed had a singular power in Russia" Schwartz said 'He was an intimate friend of Trotzky and Lenine and his request could save a man's life when all other appeals failed.

'By order of the soviets when Reed died a tremendous funeral was held and all the Moscow papers devoted the first page to his eulogy.

WOMAN REPRESENTATIVE HEARS AIMS OF WOMAN'S PARTY, CHOOSES CAPITAL OFFICE

Representative-elect Alice Robertson, left, at tea with Miss Anita Pollitzer.

In spite of the "womenly wiles of the party's representatives was the reason given by Miss Robertson, congresswoman elect from Oklahoma for holding her first important conference in Washington with leaders of the National Woman's party. Miss Alice who is known as an anti-suffragist is shown lunching with Miss Anita Pollitzer, legislative secretary of the National Woman's party and a militant suffragist. The congresswoman-elect was in Washington to look over the available offices in the house office building to make sure of getting a good one. She has returned to Oklahoma and will not take up her residence in Washington until the 'Democrats clear out.'

SUIT FILED IN FEDERAL COURT TO TEST THE BAN PLACED ON HOME BREW

CHICAGO — A suit to test the constitutionality of the recent construction of the Volstead act prohibiting manufacture of home brew was on file today in federal court. The petition filed by David D Stansbury, an attorney asserts that the government cannot collect both a revenue tax on home made liquor and assess a fine for violation of the law forbidding the manufacture.

More than 500 Chicago saloon keepers have been assessed both the fine and the tax according to Mr Stansbury of charges of selling beer containing more than the legal percentage of alcohol.

Women Who Suffer

Lima Ohio — I can recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines as being the best there is I can truly say that these medicines have saved my life two different times The first time was just after becoming a mother Now I have just gotten over a bad sick spell, due to my age I doctored with three different doctors but instead of getting better I kept growing worse. I couldn't be on my feet at all and could be out of bed but very little. I sent and got Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription, Golden Medical Discovery, Pleasant Pellets and Anuric Tablets and started taking them and got relief in about one month. I had been sick for five months. It has been six months since, and I am doing all my work for a family of six with the exception of the washing. I recommend Dr Pierce's Medicines" —MRS GEORGE BOOP, 424 E. Third St. All druggists.

J. E. WILSON GIVEN VERDICT OF $20,403 IN FARM TITLE SUIT

Alleged defective title to 12 acres of land in Section 12 Perry to little weight with the jury in the trial of the case of Joseph E Wilson against Harley D. Wright.

Wilson was Thursday given the amount of $20,403.75, for which he sued, with interest, by the jury which heard the trial in court.

After Wright had purchased the farm he re-sold it to a Mrs Jennings, who rejected it because of alleged defective title, on advice of her attorneys. Wright had harvested the crops. The jury held he must pay for the farm and take it off W son's hands.

BODY ARRIVES FROM MARION

New Army Truck Issued to Spencerville Company

SPENCERVILLE — Special) — The body of Mrs. Consuella Coon, wife of Chas Coon, who died at the Sawyer Sanitarium, Marion, Wednesday, was brought from Marion to the Coon home, between Spencerville and Lima, Thursday, by the C. B. Miller ambulance. The deceased was taken to the Sawyer Sanitarium several weeks ago where it was hoped she might regain her health. Mrs. Coon was 46 years of age. A husband and six children survive. Funeral services will be held at Christie Chapel, four miles east of Spencerville, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, and interment will be made in the Maple Wood cemetery.

Miss Mildred May Kelly, prominent Spencerville woman, and Mr. Ross Hartzog, with the firm of Price and Mohler, Spencerville, were quietly united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at Lima. After a short honeymoon trip they will return to Spencerville where their future home will be made.

Captain Ralph Neidhardt commanding Company H, Spencerville, s received word that the War Department at Washington has issued a new five ton army truck to the Spencerville company. The new truck is now at Columbus, and will be driven thru next week. Captain Neidhardt intends starting a company school and the new truck will be used as a demonstrator in the motor class

George Sunderland and Lewis Haines Spencerville oil well drillers working on a well at Lafayette, have returned to Spencerville and report that while at work the tools froze fast in the hole Of the hundreds of wells that have been drilled by Spencerville oil men this is the first case on record where a condition of this kind has been encountered. An effort will be made this coming week to release the tools by the use of acid.

HEARTY MEALS NO LONGER GIVE HER STOMACH TROUBLE

After Two Years of Suffering She Took Hypo-Cod and Was Quickly Relieved

"I suffered from sour stomach for two years and got so I could not eat only certain kind of meat and vegetables. After eating I would have a sour stomach and gas on my stomach, sometimes between meals and always had to be taking a laxative, but since I have been taking Earle's Hypo-Cod I can safely say to one afflicted the same as I have been, that I would not be without a bottle of Hypo-Cod in my house." declared Mrs. Mosely, whose address is given below.

"I heard from others who had been suffering almost the same way and they recommended this medicine to me. I now no longer suffer with gas and sour stomach and can eat with comfort any kind of spiced meats or vegetables and can also work better and sleep better. I can see it has helped me and done what I was taking it for and will gladly recommend it to anyone who needs a medicine for building up the stomach," continued Mrs. Dick Mosely, 222 Connel-ave, Elyria, Ohio.

Surely you should give this tonic that thousand of users, like the above lady, that say it is so good. Read the formula on a bottle at your druggist tonight, ask him about it. Look for name of nationally known Earle Chemical Co. on bottle which assures you of quality in medicine

Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by all good druggists and the leading druggists in all nearby towns — Adv.

DECLARES HE IS HIGHLY PLEASED WITH NEW REMEDY

Well known Lima citizen, suffered from sluggish liver, weak kidneys, nervousness, loss of appetite and constipation.

New herbal remedy, Dreco, gave prompt relief and made him feel full of energy.

"I have frequently gone without a meal to avoid the distress which usually followed eating. I have been troubled with indigestion, constipation, gas in my stomach, but it's all different now," says Mr. C. F. Protsman of 327 S Nye-st, Lima, O.

"My liver was sluggish and I often had dizzy spells; spots floated before my eyes; my tongue was coated and I had a foul taste in my mouth. My kidneys were weak, and I often had dull, aching pains in my back. After each meal I'd feel very uncomfortable caused by gastritis, which gave my stomach a full, bloated feeling, often with a burning sensation.

"I dreaded for night to come because I was so nervous I could not sleep, but would roll and toss from one side of the bed to the other, and when morning came would be more worn out and nervous then when I retired the night before.

"Since taking Dreco all these ailments have disappeared. My bowels act regularly; no more dizzy spells attack me; the bad taste and foul breath are gone. I stoop and bend over without a pain in my limbs, and all the aches in my back, in the region of my kidneys are gone. I sleep sound all night long, and have to be roused every morning. I can't say enough in praise of this great remedy Dreco."

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Lima, by Baldwin's Central Drug Store, corner Main and High-sts.— Adv.

FARMERS DESCEND ON LEGISLATURE

Protest Against Law Levying Tax on Vehicles

HICCOUGH CASES DEVELOP

Milk Price Drops—News of Columbus Grove

COLUMBUS GROVE—(Special)—Seven hundred threshermen and farmers, who attended the session of the Ohio Threshers' association at Columbus Tuesday and Wednesday marched three abreast to the state house and swooped down on the legislature, with a view to having that body defeat the law which will license every vehicle. Farmers are opposed to the measure because it will force them to purchase a license tags for their farm wagons, buggies and every vehicle used. Before returning, the delegation of 700 interviewed their representatives and senators personally concerning the matter. Harry Rimer, president and P. A. Basinger, secretary of the Northwestern Ohio Threshers' association, both of whom reside here, attended the meeting in Columbus.

Physicians report that more than a dozen cases of hiccoughs have already developed here. Cases are mild and of short duration.

Milk dropped one cent on the quart here, beginning Friday. If only a pint is purchased, 7 cents for the pint, or an average of 14 cents a quart, the former price, holds good. J. Clarence Begg is dairyman.

The Ottawa basketball team comes to Columbus Grove Friday night for the weekly game with the local team on the City building floor. The game starts at 8 o'clock.

Best Scratch Feed in City $2.90 per cwt. at Dorsey's.

FAMOUS STATUTE OF VENUS, LONG LOST, IS FOUND IN U. S.

One of four of Giorgi's famous replicas of "crouching Venus."

This statue, one of four of Giorgi's famous replicas of the "crouching Venus," a wonderful work of statuary now in the vatican gallery, Rome, has been discovered in the home of Anthony R. Sanna, a Washington business man.

Giorgi, who lived in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries, made four replicas of the famous statue, each being known as the "Venus with veins" owing to the fact that they were carved from Carrara marble, which has a veiy running thru it. They have been lost for centuries. A plaster cast of the statue in Corcoran galleries in Washington was the clue to identity of Giorgi's work. It was shipped from Sicily years ago by Mr. Sanna's father to New York. He believed he was sending a crate of furniture.

"MAKE A WILL" IS DAY'S THEME

Current Subject of Thrift Week Campaign

Friday was observed as "make a will day" in connection with the thrift campaign.

Young men who have not much property are being advised to make a will. The rich man generally needs no advice on this subject for he does it anyway. There is generally considerable trouble in dividing up an estate when a man dies without making a will, no matter how small the estate may be; everyone is urged to be on the safe side and save this trouble for their dependents.

The speakers for Thursday are: East Iron Works, 12:20 p. m., Rev. W. D. Cole; Deisel Wemmer company north plant, 11:45 a. m., B. A. Gramm; Deisel Wemmer Company south plant, 12:00 m., Rev. W. A. Alspach; Lima Locomotive Works, 12:20 p. m., T. R. Hamilton; Ohio Steel company, 12:40 p. m., O. N. Young; Garford Motor Truck company assembly department, 12:20 p. m., O. N. Young; Garford Motor Truck company office, 1:10 p. m., O. N. Young; Chamiers Pump company, 11:45 a. m., S. Folsom.

The following will speak at the theaters tonight: Regent, P. R. Marshall; Sigma, B. A. Gramm; Lyric, L. E. Ludwig; Rialto, T. R. Hamilton; Majestic, R. R. Trubey.

In addition to these regular speakers, L. C. Bradshaw will be at No. 6 engine house at 7:30 p. m., and Rev. Kirk B. O'Ferrall of Christ Episcopal church spoke at the Y. W. C. A. at noon.

"Pay your bills promptly" will be the topic of conversation for the speakers Saturday.

ST. MARYS BOND ISSUE ALLOWED

Authorized by Action of County Commissioners

WILL BUILD CANAL BRIDGE

Officers and Directors Elected by St. Marys Concerns

ST. MARYS—(Special)—A bond issue for the building of the St. Marys Spring-st canal bridge and for the Mertz joint road, was authorized in a resolution adopted by the Auglaize-co commissioners. The amount of the security has not been announced. Reinforced concrete of ornate design is the material to be used in building the canal bridge. An extension of the structure adjoins Memorial park and constitutes an entrance thereto. It is to be provided with risers and inscribed copper tablets.

French, as it is written comes from overseas to members of the St. Marys high school making a study of the language. About a dozen such communications are noted in response to English letters forwarded by local classmen. Penmanship shows the studied uniformity peculiar to the old country. It is the expectation during the school term to reverse the language—the St. Marys class writing in French—its French correspondents answering in English.

DIXON SEEKS BIG DAMAGES

Asks $25,000 of Henry Keller For Personal Injuries

Personal injury suit of Ralph J. Dixon against Henry Keller, which occupied the attention of Judge William Klinger and a jury Thursday afternoon and Friday, will probably reach the jury for deliberation Friday afternoon.

Dixon claims he was permanently disabled and can perform no work as a result of injuries he suffered when the Cleve. R. Cars auto in which he was riding was struck by the Keller car west of Baxter st on Market, October ", last.

Mrs. Keller, who was driving the car at the time, was a witness in behalf of her husband. Objection to testimony by her head to her feet, on was the principal subject before court closed Thursday night.

She denied that she used profane language to two boys who came up to investigate damage to the car, after she and her husband had driven up to near Collett's to inspect the car after the accident. She said they sought a fight to make this inspection. She emphatically denied that she slapped one of the youngsters when he interfered while they wer looking over the car.

She took the matter lightly and told her story between smiles. She declared she had driven a car since last spring, when her husband first made the purchase; said she often glanced down to ascertain the speed by watching the speedometer and told the court she knew she was not traveling 40 miles and hour, as was charged.

Dixon is suing Keller for $25,000 damages and $150 expense he incurred for medical services and hospital bills.

WOMEN JURORS ALMOST FAINT WHEN PLAINTIFF PLUCKS OUT HIS EYE

CLEVELAND — Three women serving on a jury hearing a suit for $25,000 against the Cleveland Railway Company here today almost fainted when George Rotter, plaintiff, plucked out his right eye to show the damage he had suffered. It was a glass eye. When it was passed among the jurors for inspection, the women were still suffering from the shock and refused to handle it.

Rotter said he was thrown from a street car and destroyed the right optic when he collided with the pavement.

NAMED VICAR-GENERAL

CINCINNATI — Right Rev. William Hafer has been named vicar-general of the Cincinnati diocese of the Catholic church, the second highest rank in the diocese. He ranks next to Archbishop Henry Moeller, and in the absence of the archbishop, he is delegated to supervise the affairs of the diocese.

GOODYEAR MEET ADJOURNED

AKRON — The meeting of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company stockholders set for today was adjourned until January 28, at 10 a. m. Directors, it is said, hope to have refinancing plans completed by that time. Reports from New York City where refinancing negotiations are under way, say good progress is being made.

JURY CHOSEN TO TRY MRS. PEETE

Death Penalty Demanded for Murder of Jacob Denton

LOS ANGELES, Calif. — (United Press) — The death penalty will be asked by the state in the case of Mrs. Lofie Louise Peete, 27, charged with the slaying of Jacob Denton, wealthy mining broker, according to District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine today.

The jury, which will decide whether or not it was Mrs. Peete who killed Denton, was completed yesterday and the first preliminary witness called.

The case against Mrs. Peete will be built mainly around these allegations, Woolwine declared in a preliminary statement to the jury:

That Denton planned to start on a trip to the east June 1, and that he was killed by Mrs. Peete on the morning of June 2.

That Mrs. Peete falsely told others Denton was alive after she had buried his body in the rude vault.

That Mrs. Peete sold Denton's clothing, pawned his diamond ring, gave his automobile to a friend, and while she was alleged to have been masquerading as his wife after his death, bought expensive clothing and charged it to the account of "Mrs. J. C. Denton."

FORMER PRIDE OF THE U. S. NAVY IS RELEGATED TO DUTY AS A WORK SHIP

The U. S. S. Kearsage as she appeared when considered one of Amerisa's greatest fighting ships and as she appears while being stripped of her armor and fittings at the Philadelphia navy yards.

Work has begun on stripping the old U. S. S. Kearsage to make her the world's largest floating crane. The Kearsage was once the pride of the navy. The photogarphs show her as she was in her prime, and also in the process of being stripped of her armor and fittings to be equipped with a huge crane. The photograph was taken at the Philadelphia navy yard. It is expected that the Kearsage, which will proceed from port to port where needed, under her own power, will be the largest floating crane in the world. A modern triple 16-inch gun turret weighs 200 or more tons and is too heavy for most cranes.

CELINA MAN, NABBED HERE, RETURNED TO STATE REFORMATORY

Following the arrest here Thursday noon of Lester Benning, 21, of Celina, by Officer Goebel, police here were advised that the young man was wanted at the Mansfield reformatory from where he escaped last August after serving six months of a one year sentence from Mercer co.

Benning was arrested on complaint from St. Marys that he had stolen a Ford touring car there December 19.

Immediately on receipt of the information from Mansfield authorities, Sergeant Goebel left with Benning for Mansfield.

SWOPE FAMILY FEUD IS FINALLY ENDED

Trial of Doctor Hyde Causes Estrangement of Mother and Her Daughter

Wife, Loyal Thru Three Murder Trials, Sues Husband For Divorce

NEW YORK — (Special) — After an estrangement of ten years, Mrs. Logan O. Swope, New York society woman, and her daughter, Mrs. Frances Swope Hyde of Kansas City, Mo., have been reconciled.

The daughter recently divorced Dr. Bennett C. Hyde, to whom she had remained loyal thru his three trials for murder. He was accused of poisoning members of the Swope family.

Mrs. Logan O. Swope spent thousands of dollars in eight years to obtain the conviction of her son-in-law From the time he was indicted in March, 1910, she and her daughter were hostile until recently.

Mrs. Swope's apartment is being made ready to receive the daughter who will arrive here with her two children. The mother has been with her in Independence, Kansas, at the home of Thomas Swope, a son

SILENT TEN YEARS

From March, 1910, until last October, Mrs. Swope and her daughter never communicated with each other. When the mother learned her daughter had sued for divorce she expressed a willingness to be reconciled, but said the overtures must come from the daughter.

In October Mrs. Hyde, then staying with friends in Kansas City, wired, asking her mother to accompany her to the home of Thomas Swope. There the re-union took place.

An interesting feature of the reconciliation is the announcement that Mrs. Hyde will seek to regain possession of her Kansas City home

Dramatic scenes attended the estrangement of mother and daughter in March, 1910. Dr. Hyde had been indicted charged with having killed Col. Thomas H. Swope, Kansas City millionaire, brother-in-law of Mrs. Logan O. Swope, and Chrisman Swope, a nephew. He also was charged with administering fever germs with intent to kill eight others, members of various Swope families, and their servants.

Colonel Swope died in convulsions October 3, 1909, after taking a capsule prescribed by Dr. Hyde. The colonel had been ill with stomach trouble. Dr. Hyde signed his death certificate, giving apolexy as the cause of death.

In December the Swope household was attacked by a malady of typhoid fever, ten persons being stricken ill. One of them, Chrisman Swope, died later. Mrs. Logan Swope, mother of most of the victims, then urged an investigation which resulted in the analyzing of the organs of the colonel and Chrisman and the finding of strychine, according to testimony of the physicians who made the analysis.

The case against Dr. Hyde was strengthened by the fact that another doctor testified he had given Dr. Hyde two cultures of typhoid bacilli in November of that year.

The state sought to show that Hyde knew that Colonel Swope contemplated changing his will which, as it stood, provided generously for Mrs. Hyde. This, the state argued, was a motive for the crime.

WIFE WAS LOYAL

Mrs. Hyde announced she would stand by her husband. She expressed great displeasure at the attitude of her mother. The result was that the two ceased to speak to each other.

Dr. Hyde was found guilty of murder in the first degree at his first trial and sentenced to life imprisonment. He got a new trial on a technicality. When the second trial, in 1911, had been on for a month a juror climbed thru a window and fled. It was discovered he was insane. A mistrial was declared.

Mrs. Hyde by that time had spent more than $150,000 in her husband's defense.

The third trial took place in 1912. It resulted in a disagreement. Mrs. Hyde then said she believed her husband would never be tried again. Prosecution officials was discontinued for lack of state funds.

A large portion of the $5,000,000 estate which Col. Thomas Swope left to members of his family has been dissipated in the long litigation, it is said. Mrs. Hyde, it is understood, spent practically all her money to free her husband.

BEAUTY IS VALUED AT $200,000 BY WOMAN IN SUIT FOR DAMAGES

CLEVELAND — Beauty is a $200,000 asset to any woman, Miss Grace L. Meacham, of Elyria, asserts.

She named that figure as the price of her last beauty when she filed suit for $200,000 against the New York Central Railroad, the City of Elyria and B. W. Baird. In the allegations filed inthe courts here she blamed the three defendants for an automobile scash in which her face was scarred and twisted.

Baird drove the automobile in which she was riding, she said, when it crashed into a pillar in Elyria, over an alleged improperly graded and lighted crossing, in 1919.

Delphos Citizen Has Narrow Escape in Auto Crash

ARTHUR ELSEA IS KILLED

Former Venedocia Man Loses Life in Indiana

DELPHOS — (Special) — Frank Alexander was buried under a Ford coupe when his car slid from an ice-covered road west of here and struck a ditch at a high rate of speed. He was uninjured, landing in the cavity made under the car by the seat, but the car was badly damaged.

Congressman C. J. Thompson, of the Fifth Congressional district, has asked that any young man, living in Van Wert, Paulding, Putnam, Defiance, Henry or Williams cos which comprise his district, and who wish to take the examination for the appointment to Annapolis, advise him of their intention at once. Representative Thompson has one appointment to make immediately, and will hold examinations on Feb. 20 and April 6.

Arthur Elsea, of Anderson, Ind., formerly a Venedocia young man, was killed in his home city Wednesday by a passenger train while crossing the Big Four R. R. track. Elsea leaves a wife and several children.

Charles Beck is in charge of arrangements thru which a number of Delphos ring fans expect to attend the Johnny Newton-Joe Serra bout at Memorial Hall, Lima, on Jan. 24. Newton was born in Delphos and has many friends here.

About 25 members of the Delphos Council, Knights of Columbus, attended a booster meeting held at Ottawa by the council of that city. A new home is being planned for the Knights in that village, and this, as well as organizations and plans for a campaign will be considered.

The Kelly Bros. Leather company, of Lima, thru Joseph L. Kelly, filed attachment proceedings in the court here against the firm of Pappas and Petros, proprietors of a shoe shop here, whom the company charges bought large quantities of leather from their firm for which they never received payment. Proceedings were then filed by Carl Lechleitner, who claims the firm owes him $225, by Sam Checkles, who holds a chattel mortgage for $140, and by the Eagle Shoe Store for $17.

The stockholders of the Glamorgan Tire and Rubber Co. which recently went into receivership here, will hold a meeting in the Community club rooms in this city, on January 26, which meeting will be a preliminary to that which will be held at the Shawnee Hotel, at Springfield, Ohio, on February 2. At the Springfield meeting, which will be in charge of Arnold B. King, of this city and George R. Hedges, of Columbus, joint receivers for the company, a board of directors will be elected and the financial condition of the company made known to the stockholders. The company erected a large, up-to-date rubber plant here before going into receivership.

Elmer Webster, of Van Wert, who escaped from the Ohio State Hospital for the insane, at Toledo, was picked up at the Ohio Electric station here and is being held by the police pending the arrival of a guard from the institution.

To Our New C. of C.

DEAR MR. JOHNSON: Your group meetings have been interesting and in my talk with some who have attended, it seems that all the old Needs some in new garments, were quite generally the answers written on the pink slips. Pave Main-st. remove the transfer station and beautify the square, better gas, better power and better street car transportations are still the headliners.

Summarized, of them all it would seem in the order named that Lima's direct municipal needs are: Adequate housing; adequate electric power, completion of Metcalf-st overhead to provide for extension of that car line.

Paving Main-st, or resurfacing, or whatnot is up to the property owners of that thorofare; building bridges is a question of finance; better street car service is an impossibility under present conditions, because there is not sufficient traffic; more electric power is now and has been in the hands of council for a year or more and involves nothing more, just like natural gas, than paying the price and getting it.

Perhaps of all our real needs forcing completion of the Metcalf-st overhead and winding up the deliberations with the Ohio Electric are away and above the most vital. We can not add factories and even houses, if our electric power plant can't furnish the juice. The Ohio Electric, financially is hopeless without some sort of contract franchise on which to base loans for improvements. Street car extension can be provided in this franchise and secured. Let's close up with the Ohio Electric before taking on parental liabilities of more minor character.

To the Y. M. C. A.

DEAR WORKERS. It's my impression that the thrift week program you have been staging is just a little bit the best idea that has come to my attention in a long while.

I am certain that anything that is calculated to assist the great body of people in making their income meet their necessary expenses from week to week is really worth while. Your special effort has opened the eyes of any number of my people to avenues of helpfulness heretofore unnoticed by them and they are finding, even thus early after application of the principle, that it is worth while.

Am mighty glad that your speakers have given the message of thrift to such a large number of my citizens. I know that it is going to help. Thank you, very much.

To Warren G. Harding

DEAR WARREN: You have been quoted as saying, "government is a very simple thing after all."

After March 4, you will have an opportunity to demonstrate whether your statement is correct. As you enter a great man leaves, broken in body and soul, a shadow of the vigorous individual of eight years ago. He didn't find government very simple. I hope you do.

To F. D. Carpenter

MY DEAR FRANK: I don't wish to be classed as a kicker, but I would like to, once more, humbly suggest that very probably a lot of your commuters on the southern division of the Western Ohio out of Lima would be enabled to escape the necessity of standing up in a crowded car if you could have a car put on, leaving Lima say about 4 or 4:30 p. m.

With no outgoing car between 3:15 and 5.30 p. m., the shoppers and commuters are thrown into a crush for the 5:30 car, which a two-car train doesn't relieve at all times. There are any number of shoppers who would very likely be glad of the opportunity to leave for home at 4 or 4:30, who are not ready at 3:15 and who are now compelled to wait until 5.30.

I don t know any more than a rabbit about the operation of a railroad to obtain the best results financially, but I do believe that if my suggestion in handling afternoon traffic could be adopted, it would save a lot of cussing from folks who are required to stand up in a wildly heaving car as it yanks itself around curves.

To the Farm Bureau

DEAR PRODUCERS: I feel certain that each and every one of the members of the county farm bureau ought to advantage the opportunity to hear the words of wisdom and value that will emanate from H. P. Dean and C. R. Arnold, in bringing a message concerning the value of keeping farm accounts.

In fact, in these days of uncertain costs. it is really a necessity that something like the budget system be adopted, even if it is confined to maintaining a record of income and expenses.

If the balance isn't on the right side of the ledger at the end of the year or the season, it will then be comparatively easy to ascertain just where the trouble lies. Application of corrective methods will then be easy.

To Owners of Autos

MY FRIENDS: My service director tells me that the boulevard lighting system poles in the downtown streets are being "treated rough" by you in handling your cars, getting up to the curb for parking, or backing against them in turning around.

These posts cost lots of money, folks, and when you break one of them, thru carelessness and then neglect to acknowledge what you've done and pay for the damage, you're robbing your city.

It doesn't require much of a bump to displace the white shade on top of the post and break the lamp therein. I'm really ashamed in the sight of visitors that it has become necessary for my service director to place warning cards on the posts. Let's see if we can't perform with our cars in the streets without damaging city property and if such a thing should accidentally occur, let's be fair about it and pay the cost of repairing the damage.

MY DEAR JAKE: Glad to hear that you are out of the hospital and that you obtained the relief sought in surgery.

Altho you probably received the best of care, it is quite likely that you have experienced a taste of what it means to be helplessly (but not hopelessly) confined. For several years you've been dishing up that sort of provender for a lot of other fellows you've had in limbo, otherwise known as prison.

DEAR HARRY: Those who smiled when you spoke so pointedly of law enforcement in Ohio under your administration in your inaugural message didn't know you. They remembered the "wide open" city when you were mayor of Cleveland. But Harry, law enforcement is popular with the folks of Ohio just now and I believe nothing intrigues your interest quicker than doing the highly popular things. Therefore, I feel you will enforce the law.

GENTLEMEN: My Chamber of Commerce had you as guests at a noonday luncheon Wednesday in the new banquet hall of my beautiful Elks' Home. I feel certain that your visit here was profitable to the members of my Chamber of Commerce and to others who united with them in extending to you the proper sort of welcome.

I trust that you found in Lima some thought or suggestion that will be helpful to you in the operation of your line of railroad for service as well as for profit. Looking you over, I was well impressed with you as individuals and with the expression of optimism and suggestion that fell from the lips of your spokesman, Freight Traffic Manager H. R. Lewis.

Now that the ice is broken and that you've found there are a lot of intensely human folks in my city who are striving to make this a better community for everybody, I trust you'll not delay your next visit so long. Come and see me often.

TODAY'S HEALTH HINTS

By William Brady, M. D.

THE NERVE OF THE STOMACH

The famous twelve pairs of nerves which emerge directly from the brain supply the organs of special sense: facial expression, breathing and digestion. The tenth pair, called the Pneumogastric (lung-stomach) nerves or Vagus (wandering) nerves control the movements of the stomach and the secretion of the gastric juice. These Vagus nerves are well named wandering nerves, for they wander far and wide I can recall no other pair of nerves whose geography, functions, and pathology give the unfortunate medical student so much trouble as these exceedingly wayward Vagus nerves do After a most complicated origin or birth in the well known medulla oblongata, the vagrant nerves emerge from the skull through the jugular openings, and having participated in the formation of some nerve ganglions or little brains there they pass on down through the neck, one on each side, along with the carotid artery and the internal jugular vein—deeply placed in the neck for protection—to the root of the neck in the region of the collar bones Thence they begin wandering in real earnest to the student's eternal regret The right one runs down alongside of the windpipe to the back part of the root of the lung, thence along the back of the gullet to the rear surface of the stomach.

The left descends behind the root of the left lung, thence down the front of the gullet to the front wall of the stomach.

Simple enough, isn't it? But go easy The Vagus nerves not only wander aimlessly about the body but also give off important branches in the most lavish way.

A branch supplies the meningeal membrane of the base of the brain Another supplies the skin on the back of the outer ear canal. Another controls the movements of the swallowing muscles. Another gives sensation to the larynx or voice box. Another supplies sensation to the lining of the throat and the back of the tongue. Several branches go to the heart, and several more to the lungs.

Thru the meanderings of the Vagus nerves some commonly confusing symptoms are explained. A harsh brassy cough, which arouses the patient's suspicions of his bronchial tubes and lungs, may be caused by trifling irritation of the little Vagus branch in the back wall of the ear canal by hardened wax or other irritant Pain in the base or back of the skull is often dependent on irritation of the stomach A goitre often causes a dry frequent cough, not from pressure on the windpipe but from pressure on one of the Vagus branches; irritation of the same branch sometimes causes a deep hoarse voice, and paralysis of the same branch (sometimes following diphtheria) renders the lining of the larynx insensitive so that foreign bodies or food will "go down the wrong way."

Irritation of the Pneumogastric nerves by tobacco, to which they seem particularly vulnerable, accounts for, first, "heartburn" and stomach trouble, then cough and finally actual derangement of the heart action.

WHAT the STARS PREDICT

This is not a lucky day.

This rule of the stars is not favorable to those interested in agriculture, or to investments in real estate. A decline in values in the latter may be expected.

It is predicted that extremes in public opinion may lead to violent demonstrations, possibly to riots, in the near future.

There are indications that oriental thought will have great popularity among those inclined to follow new cults.

Persons whose birthday this is should be careful not to run any risk during the coming year.

Children born today, are likely to be talented, but very headstrong, and should be carefully trained.

YOU CAN LIKE COLD WEATHER

Crisp and Snappy Wintry Air Should Make Your Blood Tingle

You Should Enjoy Outdoors

Pepto-Mangan Will Fill Your Blood With Vital Red Corpuscles, Able to Stand Cold Weather

Some people dread cold weather The least frost in the air shrivels them up. They put on heavy flannels, hug the fires and feel cold It is pretty safe to say that people like that have thin, weak blood

On the other hand you see other people who take on a healthy glow in cold weather. Their blood shows red on their cheeks and the color of their lips is heightened They step out briskly, breathe in the cold air, and it seems to act like a tonic

That's what it means to have plenty of rich, healthy blood The ozone in the cold air touches the good blood in the lungs and puts new vigor into the body You square your shoulders. The sting of clean, crisp cold air feels pleasant. You really enjoy the cold

On the other hand, people with bodies that are fed with weak, impoverished blood, lacking in red blood corpuscles, hate cold air. Their faces and lips seem to turn blue and look pinched. Their eyes look watery. There's no pleasure in winter for them.

So be sure your blood is healthy Perhaps it needs a lift right now Pepto-Mangan will tone your blood up to its normal state Doctors have prescribed it for years because it has the right ingredients to make new blood. Besides, it is easy to take. Comes in tablet or liquid form. Both have the same medicinal value.

Make certain that you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan Ask for "Gude's," and see that the name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on the package. Advertisement.

FESTIVAL DATES ANNOUNCED

Elks' Spring Event April 30 to May 7, Inclusive

Dates of the Elks' annual May festival were announced by Exalted Ruler Joseph Kaufman to a record breaking attendance at the meeting of Lima lodge No. 54 Thursday night. At the festival which will be held from April 30 to May 7 inclusive more than $30,000 in prizes will be given away, the four capital prizes being automobiles of different make.

After the meeting which was attended by over 500 members, court room sketch was given by Juvenile Judge Roland Baggot of Dayton, assisted by Miss Mildred Morrison and Miss Ruth Miller, probation officers from the same city. Following the sketch Miss Morrison gave a few songs, accompanied by Miss Miller, who also pleased with several piano selections.

This eventful meeting ended with a Mack Sennett screen comedy.

FLOOD ACT STANDS TEST

COLUMBUS — Constitutionality of the act relative to prevention of floods was upheld by the court of appeals in a decision handed down Friday.

The suit was brought on appeal by Gustav F. Kasch, of Akron, who contended the bond to be issued for improvements of the Tuscarawas river exceeded the $750,000 allowed by the act.

There is doubt about the act but not enough to declare it unconstitutional, Kunkle held.

PRETTY HAT AND CAPE FOR BABY'S SOUTHERN TRIP

BY ELOISE

The debutante and the wealthy matron are not the only one to be considered when it comes to dainty new clothes for southern wear. There are the baby sisters in the family who must also have their Palm Beach wardrobes. The tiny tots have not been forgotten, either by the designers and merchants. An entire window in an exclusive shop was recently given over to the pretty clothes for Miss Two-to-Eight. There were frilly little frocks, cunning hats and bonnets, and exquisite capes and coats.

Here is a very attractive hat and cape in which baby sister will present a very smart appearance. Both are made of lustrous satin and trimmed with wide ribbon. The ribbon forms the collar and binds the edges and armholes of the cape. A heavy cord made in the form of braid ties the cap at the chin. The little hat is mushroom shape trimmed with small silk flowers.

White silk half hose and white topped shoes complete the little lady's "best" costume.

VEILS TO PROTECT ONE'S BEAUTY IMPORTANT MILLINERY ACCESSORY

By ELOISE

An effective veil adds the finishing touch to a charming costume, according to most American modistes and milliners. It has been said that not even the fashionable women of the Paris boulevard can adjust the veil with the telling effect and artful surety of the American woman. Many women always wear a veil because of the softening effect it has on the features which is perhaps even more important than the protection it offers the complexion.

The veils this season are important because of the fact that they often form the only trimming visible on the new hats. Small ribbon, satin, taffeta and straws are being shown in soft shapes with rolling brims and very often a flowing veil or a smart lace veil drape is the only trimming. Here is one popular type showing a pleated chiffon ruffle of brown on a brown square mesh veil. A block design in white is an interesting feature of the veil and it trims a pretty brown ribbon hat of the snug fitting variety.

Mrs. Edward Penn, Mrs. Albert Brogan, Miss Florence Gladfelter and Mrs. C. W. Sullivan. Guests for the evening included: Miss Eva Chesler, Miss Florence Laudick and Mrs. William Chesler.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

NEW YORK — (Special) — Miss Katherine Mackay, daughter of Clarence H. Mackay, is visiting friends in Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain Dodds will give a dinner Friday evening at his studio, 28 E. Fifty-second-st, for his sister, Mrs. Seeley Livingston Little.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. E. Clarence Jones, who were married Monday in Jersey City, are passengers on the Imperator, sailing Thursday for Cherbourg and Southampton. The bride formerly was Margaret Seeley Blossom, widow of Henry M. Blossom, author and playwright. Other passengers are Vincent Astor, who will spend several weeks abroad on business, and Philip Morgan Plant, and his mother, Mrs. William Hayward.

* * *

Mrs. Edward Winslow Packard and her daughter, Miss Muriel Oakes, who are at the Woodmanse, their country place in Greenwich, Conn., will start in a few days for Winter Park, Fla.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

WASHINGTON — (Special) — Miss Mary Wilson, second daughter of William B. Wilson, secretary of labor, was married Thursday to Charles D. Strohecker of Washington. Because of mourning in Secretary Wilson's family, the wedding was as simple as possible. The ceremony took place in the Presbyterian manse at Rockville, Md. Mr. Strohecker and his bride will live in Washington.

Mrs. James McDonald entertained at dinner Thursday night for the Chilean ambassador and Mme. Mathieu, the Cuban minister and Mme. De Cespedes, the charge d'affairs of Great Britain and Mrs. Robert Leslie Craigie, and Maj. Gen. Count A. Tcherep Spiridovitch, known as the "Slav pope," who is an old friend of Mrs. Donald and her son, Arthur Bradley Campbell.

BIG "EARTHBOUND" SCENE EVEN STARTLED PERSHING

Wyndham Standing's Fall in Shooting Climax Seldom Equalled for Dramatic Realism

The scene in "Earthbound," Basil King's great film story, in which one man pays the penalty for his affair with another man's wife, is a bit of dramatic acting which in tragic intensity has seldom been equalled on stage or screen. "Earthbound" comes to the Regent theatre for one week, commencing Sunday.

Even General Pershing, who was being shown thru the Goldwyn studio the day the scene was taken, was startled by its realism, and praised the work of the participants in the highest terms.

Nicholas Desborough, played by Wyndham Standing, had betrayed the confidence of his old friend Jim Rittenshaw (Mahlon Hamilton). The two men meet half way up the long stairway in the prominent club of which both are members and Rittenshaw shoots on sight.

The shots bring to their feet the startled men in the various rooms of the club, bringing them to the lobby to stare fascinated at the victim, bewildered, dying even as he stands there facing the one-time friend who shot him.

Then, straight backward he falls, as a log would topple, and rolls to the floor below. There is no crumpling, but a sickening, unbending crash to the steps.

Drama, pathos, tragedy, are in this scene. It is but one episode in a story which, thruout, stirs human emotion to the depths. "Earthbound" was filmed under the direction of T. Hayes Hunter.

Do You Know Your Own Wife? See "The Riddle: Woman"—Then Answer

What hidden impulse is it that attracts a good woman to a dissolute man? See "The Riddle: Woman" at The Lyric, starting Sunday.

In the heart of every woman stirs the languor of a Sappho. In her eyes smolder the hopes of a Cleopatra. On her lips trembles the smile of a Mona Lisa and it was Alexander Pope who said "every woman is at heart a rake." From the above you get the drift of "The Riddle: Woman" which comes to the Lyric Sunday—comes with Geraldine Farrar in all its glory for without question this is one glorious production.

Do you know your wife? Ah, you may think you do, but if the innermost recesses of her heart were bared to your inspection you might feel the ground slipping from under you, for there is that in every woman's heart some inspirations, some desires, some longings that husbands and sweethearts alike are never permitted to know.

Oh! you'll revel in this picture. It is daring in the extreme. The settings are just wonderful. The gowns are exquisite; the situations are at times nothing more nor less than amazing.

You can't afford to miss this picture at all. Starting Sunday at The Lyric.

SHOULDN'T BLAME MEN FOR EVERYTHING

By SUSIE SMART

Dear Miss Smart:

HOW can true love be recognized? I am 19 years old and feel that I am old enough to know my own heart. I have been going with a young man for about a year and I love him. He has asked me to marry him. But what is love and marriage? Perhaps a man will love his wife for a month, a year or so and then it is all flung aside someone else. At least that seems to be the way these days. I have faith in my friend, but he is just human and not unlike most men. We are also of different religion. Do you think, that would make any difference? In the belief that a disinterested party will help me I have turned to you.

THANKFUL

EGOTISM and sentimentality are your troubles. Many girls are like you. They worry about the happiness which they think in they might be denied, but they do not stop to consider that a husband often faithless because his wife has failed to work for happiness and sacrifice also. Men are bad enough, we know, but let's don't blame them for everything. A wife can change her husband for either the good or bad—whichever she chooses.

In some instances a difference in religion does not bring unhappiness, while at other times it does. If persons are broad minded in their views on religion they will have no trouble in getting along whether Catholic, or Protestant.

As for recognizing true love, you will recognize it when you care much for a man that you will be willing to sacrifice for him and all to be an inspiration and help to him.

I have a boy friend who comes to see me every night. I do not like to have him come so often. How can I keep him from coming so often without insulting him?

BETTY

Unless you are engaged to a young man, for him to come every night is entirely too often and then probably even if you are engaged to him it is too often. Young people do get tired of each other when they see so much of one and other. Talk to him in a sensible way and tell him that you think for him to come to see you every night is too often. It gives neither you nor him a chance to do anything else, or go with other friends. I am certain that if you talk sincerely and sensibly to him, he will agree with you.

Dear Miss Smart:

* * *

Dear Miss Smart:

(1) Is a girl of 14 years (rather small for age) too young or small to talk to a boy? (2) In having a taffy pull are four couples enough? (3) How long should they stay? Should the boys take the girls home? (5) Is it alright for the boy to bring the girl? (6) Of what religion is President Wilson?

M. J.

(1) Just so she isn't too "small." (2) Yes. (3) That depends upon the age of those enjoying the affair. For girls and boys of 14 I think they should leave by 10 o'clock. (4) I think that would be the proper thing to do. (5) Yes if these little parties don't occur too frequently. (6) Presbyterian.

* * *

Dear Miss Smart:

(1) Can one study wireless telegraphy at home? If so, to whom will I make application for such a course? (2) Would it be best to sell a car now or will prices be higher in the spring? (3) Is my writing good?

JIM

(1) Yes. I think a course in wireless telegraphy is being offered at night school at one of the high schools now. (2) Prices may be lower in the Spring, but not assured. You are better acquainted with your own financial condition than I am and so know which would be the better plan from a business standpoint. (2) Yes.

* * *

Dear Miss Smart:

Can you tell us where the expression "a feather in one's cap" originated?

X. Y. Z.

Looking for an explanation of how the expression "a feather in one's cap" originated, you may find in the Lansdowne, MS., British Museum, a "Description of Hungary in 1599," in which the writer says of the inhabitants: "It hath been antient custom none may wear feather save onlie he who slew a Turk, to whom onlie it is lawful to shew ye a number of his slaine enemys by ye number of fethers in his cappe."

How did the H. C. L. affect you?

THE MIDDLE TEMPLE MURDER

By J. S. FLETCHER

"No," he said, throwing the newspaper aside. "I didn't. I came to tell you my latest. You're at full liberty to stick it into your paper tonight; it may just as well be known."

"Well?" said Spargo.

Rathbury took his cigar out of his lips and yawned.

"Aylmore's identified," he said lazily.

Spargo sat up, sharply

"Identified!"

"Identified, my son. Beyond doubt."

Rathbury laughed.

"He's an old lag—an ex-convict. Served his time partly at Dartmoor. That, of course, is where he met Maitland or Marbury D'ye see? Maitland or Marbury now, Spargo."

Clear as noontide now, Spargo.

Spargo sat drumming his fingers on the desk before him. His eyes were fixed on a map of London that hung on the opposite wall; his ears heard the throbbing of the printing machines far below. But what he really saw was the faces of the two girls, what he really heard was the voices of the two girls * * *

"Clear as noontide—as noontide," repeated Rathbury with great cheerfulness.

Spargo came back to the earth of plain and brutal fact.

"What's clear as noontide?" he asked sharply.

"What? Why, the whole thing! Motive — everything," answered Rathbury. "Don't you see, Maitland and Aylmore (his real name is Ainsworth, by the bye) meet at Dartmoor, probably, or, rather, certainly just before Aylmore's release. Aylmore goes abroad, makes money, in time comes back, starts career, gets into Parliament, becomes big man. In time, Maitland, who, after his time, has also gone abroad, also comes back. The two meet. Maitland probably tries to blackmail Aylmore or threatens to let folk know that the flourishing Mr. Aylmore, M. P. is an ex-convict. Result—Aylmore lures him into the Temple and quiets him. Pooh!—the whole thing's clear as noontide, as I say. As—noontide!"

Spargo drummed his fingers again.

"How?" he asked quietly. "How came Aylmore to be identified?"

"My work," said Rathbury, proudly. "My work, my son. You see, I mount a lot. And especially after we'd found out that Marbury was Maitland."

"You mean after I'd found out," remarked Spargo.

Rathbury waved his cigar.

"Well well, it's all the same," he said. "You help me, and I help you eh? Well as I say, I thought a considerable lot. I thought—now, where did Maitland, or Marbury, know or meet Aylmore twenty or twenty-two years ago? Not in London, because we knew Maitland never was in London—at any rate, before his trial, and we haven't the least proof that he was in London after. And why won't Aylmore tell? Clearly because it must have been in some undesirable place. And then all of a sudden, it flashed on me in a moment of—what do you writing fellows call these moments, Spargo?"

"Inspiration I should think," said Spargo. "Direct inspiration."

"That's it. In a moment of direct inspiration, it flashed on me—why, twenty years ago, Maitland was in Dartmoor—they must have met there! And so we got some old warders whod been there at that time to come to town, and we gave 'em opportunities to see Aylmore and to study him.

"Of course, he's twenty years older, and he's grown a beard; but they began to recall him, and then one man remembered that if he was the man they thought he'd a certain birthmark. And—he has."

"Does Aylmore know that he's been identified?" asked Spargo.

Rathbury pitched his cigar into the fireplace and laughed.

"Know!" he said scornfully. "Know? He's admitted it. What was the use of standing out against proof like that? He admitted it tonight in my presence. Oh, he knows all right!"

Rathbury laughed contemptuously.

"Say? Oh, not much. Pretty much what he said about this affair—that when he was convicted the time before he was an innocent man. He's certainly a good hand at playing the innocent game."

"And of what was he convicted?"

"Oh, of course, we know all about it—now. As soon as we found out who he really was we had all the particulars turned up. Aylmore, or Ainsworth (Stephen Ainsworth his name really is) was a man who ran a sort of what they call a mutual benefit society in a town right away up in the north—Cloudhampton—some thirty years ago. He was nominally, secretary, but it was really his own affair. It was patronized by the working classes—Cloudhampton's a purely artisan population—and they stuck a lot of their brass, as they call it, in it. Then suddenly it came to smash, and there was nothing. He—Ainsworth, or Aylmore—pleaded that he was robbed and duped by another man, but the court didn't believe him, and he got seven years. Plain story, you see, Spargo, when it comes out, eh?"

"All stories are quite plain—when they come out," observed Spargo. "And he kept silence now, I suppose, because he didn't want his daughters to know about his past?"

"Just so," agreed Rathbury. "And I don't know that I blame him. He thought, of course, that he'd go scotfree over this Marbury affair. But he made his mistake in the initial stages, my boy—oh, yes!"

Spargo got up from his desk and walked around his room for a few minutes. Rathbury, meanwhile finding and lighting another cigar. At last Spargo came back and clapped a hand on the detective's shoulder.

"Look here, Rathbury!" he said. "It's very evident that you're now going on the lines that Aylmore did murder Marbury. Eh?"

Rathbury looked up. His face showed astonishment.

"After evidence like that!" he exclaimed. "Why, of course. There's the motive, my son, the motive!"

Spargo laughed.

"Rathbury," he said. "Aylmore no more murdered Marbury than you did!"

The detective got up and put on his hat.

"Oh!" he said. "Perhaps you know who did, then?"

"I shall know in a few days," answered Spargo.

Rathbury stared wonderingly at him. Then he suddenly walked to the door. "Good night!" he said gruffly.

"Goodnight, Rathbury," replied Spargo and sat down at his desk.

But that night Spargo wrote nothing for the Watchman. All he wrote was a short telegram addressed to Aylmore's daughters. There was only three words on it—Have no fear.

Alone of all the London morning newspapers, the Watchman appeared next day destitute of sensationalism in respect to the Middle Temple murder. The other daily journals published more or less vivid accounts of the identification of Aylmore, M. P., for the Brookmaster division, as the ci-devant Stephen Ainsworth, ex-convict, once upon a time founder and secretary of the Hearth and Home Mutual Benefit Society, the headquarters of which had been at Cloudhampton, in Daleshire; the fall of which had involved thousands of honest working folk in terrible distress if not in absolute ruin. Most of them had raked up Ainsworth's past to considerable journalistic purpose; it had been an easy matter to turn up old files, to recount the fall of the Hearth and Home, to tell anew the story of the privations of the humble investors whose small boards had gone in the crash; it had been easy, too, to set out again the history of Ainsworth's arrest, trial and fate. There was plenty of romance in the story; it was that of a man who by his financial ability had built up a great industrial insurance society; had—as was alleged—converted the large sums entrusted to him to his own purposes.

He had been detected and punished; had disappeared, after his punishment, so effectually that no one knew where he had gone; had come back, comparatively a few years later, under another name, a very rich man, and had entered Parliament and been, in a modest way, a public character without any of those who knew him in his career suspecting that he had once worn a dress liberally ornamented with the broad arrow. Fine copy, excellent copy; some of the morning newspapers made a couple of columns of it.

But the Watchman, up to then easily ahead of all its contemporaries in keeping the public informed of all the latest news in connection with the Marbury affair, contented itself with a brief announcement. For after Rathbury had left him Spargo had sought his proprietor and his editor, and had sat long in consultation with them, and the result of their talk had been that all the Watchman thought fit to tell its readers next morning was contained in a curt paragraph:

"We understand that Mr. Stephen Aylmore, M. P., who is charged with the murder of John Marbury, or Maitland, in the Temple on June 21, last, was yesterday afternoon identified by certain officials as Stephen Ainsworth, who was sentenced to a term of penal servitude in connection with the Hearth and Home Mutual Benefit Society funds nearly thirty years ago."

Coming down to Fleet-st that mornin., Spargo, strolling jauntily along the front of the law courts, encountered a fellow-journalist, a man on an opposition newspaper, who grinned at him in a fashion which indicated derision.

HER OWN CAREER

By PHYLLIS PHILLIPS

TWO BOUQUETS

"So you met her, Gwenny, did you?" asked Fern, as soon as Fedya had gone. "Oh, my poor, dear boy, how he must have suffered to have you go thru all that filth! How mortifying — how destructive to his soul as well as his body. Is she as terrible as they say?"

"Yes, yes, every bit," said Gwenda, with a shudder, as she once more thought of Natalie as she had seen her standing, knife in hand, just behind Fedya's easel, a coarse, menacing figure, sullen and revengeful.

"And did she try to stab him, the fiend?" questioned Fern, holding her trembling hand to her mouth in sheer nervousness.

"No, that is I'm not sure just what her plan was. It was either to stab Fedya or cut his canvas to shreds. That has been done before by jealous women, dear, as you know."

"Oh, oh, oh! How dreadful! Some day she will accomplish her deadly purpose, I know. She is clever as all half insane people are and will bide her time carefully. Fedya absolutely must have her placed in a sanatorium. It is now a question of protecting you as well as himself, Gwenda."

"Do not be worried about me, Fern. I'm all right now. And I feel pretty certain that Fedya will put his wife away this time."

The two girls got themselves a light supper and discussed Fedya and his affairs until late into the evening. Then Gwenda had to rush off to the theater for her "turn."

In spite of her strenuous afternoon, she danced as she had never danced before and held her audience spellbound. Her black hair seemed alive, as it swirled up and out to the movements of her body. She herself was inspired as never before.

And as she finished and dropped gracefully to the ground she felt a strange shiver pass thru her. It was an emotion she had never before experienced.

Later on in her tiny dressing room she wondered dreamily if she had not grown-up that [illegible]. And if so, just what had made her. Something deep within her told her vaguely, but she stifled this, as Fern's pleading eyes rose up before her, over and over again.

She felt a warm tear in her eyes and slapped herself hard in the face, crossly. "Must be this horrid, old cold cream getting into my eyes," he grumbled. "Never pays to try a new brand — not if you are totally satisfied with the one you have been using. Serves me jolly well right."

Then she turned to the open door, in response to a knock. In the hallway stood the errand boy of the theater, holding a huge armful of red roses and sweet mignonette. A sweet, little bouquet of old-fashioned flowers that quickened her heartbeats.

She took them in and smiled happily. The red roses were from Fedya. She kissed the burning petals lingeringly.

The old world bouquet was from John Neale.

Gwenda sat staring at nothing for a moment after this. Then she went on taking off her make-up. Once she laughed outright, as she said to herself out loud, "He must have been in the audience this evening."

MUSCLES SEEMED TO BE TIED IN KNOTS

Toledo Woman Had to Give Up Her Profession Because of Rheumatism — Says Tanlac Has Overcome Troubles

"Tanlac has done me more good than all the other medicines I took during a period of seven years combined," said Mrs M Hickey, 1313 Milburn-ave, Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Hickey has been dressmaking in Toledo for the past ten years and is highly esteemed by all who know her.

"For seven years I was in a very weak and run down condition, and my appetite was completely gone. But my worst trouble was rheumatism, for the muscles of my feet and hands pained me constantly. This made it very difficult for me to do my sewing and I got so bad off that I had to give up the work altogether. I could hardly walk and my muscles felt like they were tied in knots.

"But that is not the case with me since I took Tanlac. I have a ravenous appetite now and my whole system has been wonderfully built up. I hardly notice any rheumatic pains and can do my sewing as well as ever. Tanlac has helped me so much that I feel a great deal better in every way than I have for years. It is a pleasure for me to recommend this wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Lima at Hunter's Drug Stores and the leading druggists in every town —Adv.

MEN ARE MERE INFANTS, JANE BURR DECLARES

Thinks Household Should be Departmental Affair

HUSBAND NOT TO BE "BOSS"

Would Allow Him to Pay Car Fare, However

(BY MARGERY REX)

NEW YORK—Should a man be master in his own home?

Yea, verily, according to the Rev. A. C. Dixon, the Buffalo evangelist, in reproving the sins of Syracuse.

Master—yes, but not in his home—is the opinion of Miss Jane Burr, American author and feminist, who reproves with her pen the sins of modern society and its customs.

"The woman who is unwilling that a man should be at the head of the household should not get married," says Dr. Dixon. "The Bible teaches that the husband is the head of the household."

Across her sunlit desk Miss Burr smiled at me as she read the clergyman's dictum. Her appearance was disconcerting. You don't expect to find Irish lace blouses and real coiffures in the village. Much less in Chelsea. But Miss Burr is a great success and can afford to be as unconventional as she pleases with long hair and other ornaments considered very radical in that vicinity.

"Absurd," she said tersely. "The well-organized home has no head. It should be a departmental affair.

"I don't believe in the home—but that is beside the point.

BELIEVES IN TWO HOMES

"I do believe in two homes, one for the husband and one for the wife. That's what is the matter with marriage—the mutual home, I know. I've been married twice.

"One of the two in a mutual home will always try to get the upper hand. The strong one will become stronger and the weak one will become weaker.

"With two homes the woman goes on with her life as she did before marriage. Then there is no such discussion about who is head of the house.

"The problem of the 'home' would be solved if women could work, if they could all be protected and cared for during the time their children are born, and if there were a pension for every child.

"I have heard many a girl in an office say: 'There's no way out of here except thru the church door.' which proves that to many women matrimony is simply an easier way of earning a living than working in an office, for instance.

DEPARTMENTAL DOMESTICITY

"If a couple must live together, then let the domesticity be departmental. Let a man have charge of what occurs outside the home and a woman take charge of purely domestic affairs.

"In some things I would be willing to let a man be the head. As for example a man could take care of such enterprises as crossing the street, helping a woman thru crowds and paying the subway fare.

"Once inside the doors of his home, tho, his powers should end. Then he's hers.

"That reminds me of something H. G. Wells said to me when I was in London recently.

WANTS TO BE MOTHERED

"'Do you really think,' he asked me, 'that a man wants intellectuality when he comes home at night? No—he wants to be mothered like a baby.'

"'Yes,' I replied to Wells, 'and a woman wants to mother a man like a baby only if she respects what he has been doing in the daytime.'

"'If he is a baby twenty-four hours a day a woman gets good and sick of mothering him.'

"If a woman wants to sink herself in her husband and lose her own personality, I say that is all very well, provided his success means enough to her, if to her he is worth the sinking.

"After all, there's only one way to get on with a man—cultivate a soapy vocabulary. This is old and trite, I suppose—but is unalterably true.

"Say to him: 'You are the most wonderful salesman, or advertising man, or writer, or whatever he is, and he will swallow it whole, bait, hook and line.

MEN DESIGN WOMEN'S CLOTHES

"This minister says women in their dresses are not as modest as men. Does he know that all womens' clothes are designed by men?

"Designed for women by men—for the purpose of attracting men. And don't men dressmakers know what will attract other men in a woman's clothes?

"Modern dancing has come in for its share of criticism from the Rev. Dixon, too, I see. He says it is immoral.

"I say it has done away with a great amount of immorality. It is a great outlet for pent-up energy. Any one who dances a great deal will be in perfect health. It is better than exercise in a gymnasium—that's dull at its best. Dressed up in good clothes, moving along to good music, the dancer is indulging in the finest type of exercise he could find.

"After all, men are infants—the greatest of them. I feel forty years older than any man I ever met, because of their universal childishness. They never grow up."

WHY WE ARE INTRODUCING PEPGEN TO PEOPLE WHO LIVE HERE IN LI

An Open Statement to the Public Made by C. M. Hunter, P prietor of Hunter's Drug Stores. Tells How Pepgen Cam His Attention and Result of Thorough Investigation.

Mr. Chas. M. Hunter is proprietor of two of the leading drug stores in Lima.

In a personal statement made for publication, Mr. Hunter, after describing the investigatio was made by his concern and the results thereof, gives most emphatic endorsement to Pepgen, remedy that has attracted widespread attention.

Pepgen is manufactured by The American Drug Company, of Dayton, Ohio. How it has to be introduced in Lima is told with remarkable clearness, emphasized by striking forcefulness Hunter's statement. The statement follows:

"Several months ago my attention was attracted to a series of remarkable testimonials published in Columbus and Springfield newspapers, relating to a new remedy, Pepgen. These statements continued to appear, and were of such a character that I decided that if they were true, I ought to have that remedy in my stores to offer to Lima people.

"I ordered a quantity of Pepgen. I have had Lima people try it. I have had them tell their experiences with it.

"As a consequence, I endorse this medicine, Pepgen, with all the assurance and confidence justified by a thorough investigation.

"I have sold many remedies and can truthfully state that I think we have found a remedy that gives universal satisfaction, and I am safe in saying that it is a splendid tonic for the stomach, kidneys, liver and nerves.

Pepgen is composed of a n of different kinds of roots and which are well known for tonic, appetizing and laxative e It is a non-secret medicine and customer who has bought a is well satisfied.

"Any person who asks abou gen at our stores will be given explanation."

JACKSON STREET WOMAN ENJOYS ALL HER MEALS

Nervous-Dyspeptics May Now Eat Heartily; No Indigestion Afterwards

"Yes, I now have a good appetite and can eat whatever I desire without having indigestion afterwards," says Minnie Littlin, 115 S. Jackson St., Lima.

"Before I took Pepgen I was a very light eater and even what little I ate disagreed with me.

"I was in a general run down condition. My stomach, liver and kidneys were affected. This state of health made me very nervous and I was restless at night. I often had terrible headaches. My complexion was sallow and my blood circulation poor. Also I was often so dizzy that I could not get out of a chair for fear of falling.

"I have taken Pepgen for about four weeks during which time I have developed a good appetite. I have gained six pounds in weight. I sleep soundly and I have not had one dizzy spell since the first week I took Pepgen.

"After having such a splendid experience I feel I would be neglecting my duty if I didn't recommend Pepgen."

Men and women who have thought they were run-down forever have wound themselves up and are running along smoothly. They took Pepgen. They found in Pepgen a stomach food and stomach tonic—a medicine that feeds while it heals starved, sick, sore stomachs and builds health and strength through the stomach and nerves.

HOW THEY MADE GAINS IS TERSELY RELATED BY MANY LIMA RESIDEN

Mrs. Emma Stonestreet, 415 N. Jackson street, Lima, says: "I was subject to attacks of acute indigestion and hardly anything I ate agreed with me. I have taken Pepgen but a short time and it cetrainly has helped me."

Mrs. John Miller, 501 N. Union street, Lima, says: "I had indigestion off and on for years. My appetite was very poor. I had spells of dizziness. Since taking Pepgen I haven't had a pain in my stomach, my appetite is keen and I am well pleased with the results of the medicine."

Mrs. Mary Mowrey, 118 E. Pearl street, Lima, says: "I think Pepgen is a splendid medicine and do not hesitate to recommend it. It relieved stomach trouble and liver complaint with which I suffered for two years. I have a better appetite and my food digests much better."

Mrs. Jennie Decker, 607 N. Jackson street, Lima, says: "I have been troubled with indigestion nearly all my life. Since taking Pepgen I do not have any trouble with my stomach. Pepgen also relieved my eleven-year-old son of cramps in the stomach."

J. C. Smith, 227 N. Jackson street, Lima says: "Pepgen regulated my bowels quickly and relieved indigestion. I am satisfied it good medicine and that it will fit other people who have sto trouble. I am glad to recom the medicine."

Mrs. D. A. Conley, 905 W. street, Lima, says: "I had liver ble for a good many years. had an attack of flu which le in a rundown condition. It exaggeration to say that since t Pepgen I feel like a new woma appetite is better, my bowels ar ular and I sleep fine."

Mrs. Herbert Rush, 136 Ha avenue, Lima, says: "Since t Pepgen, I will say that I hav had any trouble with indigestio I have a better appetite and decidedly stronger. I am gla recommend Pepgen. It has p very beneficial in my case."

Mrs. J. P. McKinley, 773 Bell taine avenue, Lima, says: "For years I suffered with stomach ble. I had severe attacks of gestion. I was very nervous. taking Pepgen I am much bette am not nearly as nervous as I My appetite has improved and stronger."

Mrs. E. A. Wilson, 426 N. W ington street, Lima, says: daughter, Rachel, was in a run condition. She had kidney tr and she is gaining every day. one can see the improvement in We give all credit to Pepgen."

Well Known Columbus Nurse Tells What Pepgen Daily Accomplishes For the Ailing in Capital Ci

Mrs. Harriet Collins Relates Personal Experience With New Compound Said to Produce Wonderful Results

Mrs. Harriet Collins

"I know of scores of cases of stomach trouble, nervousness, constipation and other ills in Columbus that have been relieved by Pepgen when other medicines have entirely failed to produce the slightest results," says Mrs. Harriet Collins, well-known Columbus nurse who resides at 1172 E. Rich street, that city.

Mrs. Collins is well qualified to speak in this connection. She has been a practical nurse for the past seven years and has nursed in many of the capital city's most prominent and influential families. She has a wide circle of friends in Lima who will be justly pleased to read about her experience with Pepgen and no doubt many of them will be relieved of long-standing illnesses by following her advice.

Mrs. Collins is a member of Crown Chapter, Eastern Stars, the J. C. McCoy Relief Corps and Rambler Rebecca Lodge. In reciting her experience with Pepgen, she says:

"When the epidemic of influenza was at its height I was very busy nursing patients and I finally contracted the disease myself. I was a very sick woman and there were times when I didn't know whether or not I would ever get well.

"However, the fever left my body after the disease had run its course and I recovered to a point where I was able to leave my bed. But I was weak, yes, very weak, and as time went on I didn't gain strength. I was so weak that I did not dare trust myself on the street alone.

"Besides my weakness, every particle of food I ate soured in my stomach, causing gas and bloating. I lost weight until I looked like a mere shadow of my former self.

"When night came I would roll and toss in bed because I could not sleep, arising in the morning feeling more tired than when I went to bed if such a thing is possible.

"One day I stopped at a drug store to purchase some medicine. The druggist said to me, 'Mrs. Collins, why don't you try Pepgen. We are selling a large quantity of it and from the reports we are receiving it must be a very powerful tonic. Everybody speaks good about it.'

"I said to the druggist, 'I don't know anything about Pepgen and I haven't got much faith in it.'

"Well, he said to me, 'all I can tell you about Pepgen is that it is a preparation made from a vast number of different kinds of roots and barks, some of which I understand are very rare and hard to secure.'

"I decided to try Pepgen and I told the druggist at the time that if it didn't help me, I guessed it wouldn't do me any harm and I was willing to try almost anything to regain my strength.

"When I had finished that bottle of Pepgen I felt much better. So much better that I procured another bottle and as I continued to take the medicine, I continued to improve until at last I felt like a new woman.

"I want to say that I gained fifteen pounds. I do not have the slightest trouble with my stomach. No gas, no bloating.

"I am now so strong and well that I am able to be in attendance at a long case and I do not feel unusually tired when I am dismissed.

"One more thing about Pepgen. When I was sixteen I had typhoid fever, since which time I have had much trouble with constipation. After taking Pepgen that annoyance seems to have disappeared."

Pepgen may be obtained at any first class drug store anywhere. During the past few weeks many thousands of bottles have been sold in Lima, Wapakoneta, Delphos, Ottawa, Cridersville, Spencerville, Lake View, Van Wert and other points.

Pepgen is highly recommended by Chas. M. Hunter.

MUSCULAR RHEUMATISM

Soreness, Stiffness, Lame Back.

Quickly Relieved

Don't suffer another day from Muscular Rheumatism, Soreness, Stiffness or Lame Back! Go to your nearest druggist—today—and get a small inexpensive jar of Lanolated Iodine Compound and apply it freely right on the sore, stiffened muscles and see what quick relief it brings!

Lanolated Iodine soothes and heals the sore and inflamed muscles, tendons, and ligaments the very minute you put it on, for it rubs right in like a vanishing cream. Stops soreness, reduces swelling, and drives away the pain.

Most of us know the value of Iodine, as it has been used for years for Strains, Sprains, Lameness and Swellings—but, ordinary Iodine always stains, irritates and very often blisters—while in Lanolated Iodine you have all the virtues of ordinary Iodine, without the disagreeable features of staining or irritation.

Lanolated Iodine can be safely used wherever and whenever a soothing, pain-killing application is needed. Ask your Doctor about this new Iodine preparation that rubs right in, without stain or irritation.

Fred Butler, H. F. Vorkamp or any good druggist can supply you with Lanolated Iodine, which is cheaper than the old-fashioned kind, for it goes further and never loses its strength.—Adv.

BOTH LIMA HIGH SCHOOLS HAVE STIFF GAMES TONIGHT

SOUTH HI STACKS UP AGAINST THE STRONG FOSTORIA FIVE AND ARE AFTER REVENGE FOR THE 104-0 DEFEAT HANDED THEM IN FOOTBALL

DAYTON TEAM IS TO PLAY LEGION IN LIMA TONIGHT

The Dayton Cettiles basketeers arrived in Lima shortly before noon Friday, and from their looks it is evident that the Legion quintet is going to have a hard tussle with the visitors when both teams line-up tonight on Memorial Hall floor.

All of the visiting players are tall, lean specimens and most anyone can tell that they are a fast aggregation of basket tossers.

"Dutch" Zimmerman, their right forward, is a former St. Marys resident, he says, and is considered one of the fastest players of their club.

Sheer, Zimmerman's running mate, is a chunky little chap who looks like he is equipped with all the speed in the world. He is a former Stiver's HI star and is in a class by himself when it comes to making sensational plays.

Haynes, a substitute forward, was formerly connected with the L. B. Harrison team of Cincinnati, which organization won the "Queen City" championship for four consecutive seasons.

HAVE RANGY CENTER

Russ Young, their rangy center, formerly played with the Dayton Beavers, a team that last year walloped everything in this section of the country. This man is a powerful proposition and is credited with making the majority of baskets obtained by the Cettiles this season.

Playing against this star, will be Baker for the Legion. His ability to play real basketball is now a recognized fact and as per usual a stiff game between these two men at the pivot position can be expected.

Logan and Scott, who will play together the guard positions, are both stars on their end of the floor.

FROM ATHLETIC CLUB

This organization is formed thru the efforts of the Cettiles Athletic club, which is a rising young men's club in Dayton.

They are out for the state professional championship, and so far this season have played seven games, losing only one of them. Such teams as the Covington (Ky.) A. C.'s; Middletown Pirates; Lexington, (Ky.) Shamrocks; DeSales of Cincinnati, and several good teams in Dayton have been defeated by the Cettiles. The game they dropped was to the Cincinnati Gym Athletic club on their floor by the close score of 26 to 25.

LINE-UP UNCHANGED

The Legion team will present the same line-up which participated against the Firestones of Akron last Friday night, when they were defeated in one of the most exciting basketball games seen on a local floor in a number of years.

As a preliminary, the Garford girls will stack up against the Gramm-Bernstein girls in a third and deciding struggle in their tourney.

"FUR" TO FLY

These two teams have met on two different occasions in preliminary games at Memorial Hall, and each has a victory to their credit. Undoubtedly the "fur" will fly in this deciding contest. This game starts promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Park plan dancing will follow the main game, and music will be furnished by Bob Baker's jazz orchestra, formerly known as the "Ragpickers."

LEONARD MAY GO ABROAD

NEW YORK—Benny Leonard may go to London in the spring to meet Johnny Basham, British welterweight champion, it was learned today.

According to Billy Gibson, manager of the world's lightweight title holder, Benny is tired of trying to induce the contenders of his own weight in this country to meet him, and has decided there will be more competition in Great Britain.

Basham has been tentatively selected as Leonard's first opponent there, because he is rated the best boxer near Benny's weight.

TIFFIN HERE AGAIN FOR B. B. GAME

(BY BILL CUNNINGHAM)

(Lima News' Staff Correspondent)

"Beat Tiffin," is the cry of a thousand loyal Central HI rooters now that this critical game is only a few hours away. The team has the dope, the training, the endurance and the loyal support of the entire school, but has Tiffin a stronger team?

Reports from that city are to the effect that they have improved considerably since their defeat by South a week ago and that they are determined to defeat one Lima team at least

A CRITICAL GAME

This game is critical, as it will probably determine who holds first place in the Trolley League. At present, Fostoria and Central are tied with two games won and none lost. South HI is to play Fostoria and make Central the undisputed leaders provided, Central wins their tonight's game.

The game with Tiffin is the game that will determine whether Central or Tiffin have the best all-around athletes. The teams fought to a 14-14 tie in football this year and both teams were confident that if they had had more time they could have won the game.

This first basketball game will be a chance for the better team to prove their superiority as there is no chance for a tie game.

THE PROBABLE LINE-UP

Coach Derrick will probably start the game with: Lutz and Dille, forwards, Laughlin, center Devoe and James, guards. These men work together and are a fast scrappy, five. Dille and Lutz are an excellent pair of forwards and are expert shots. Laughlin as captain has already made a name for himself this year. He is a fast, careful, player and fits into teamwork perfectly.

The two guards are perhaps the best pair in the Trolley League. This will be proven to be a fact before the season closes according to the fans. James is scrappy. He plays a hard, close guarding game and handles his opposing forward with ease. Devoe is as good a guard as James and has not had so many fouls called on him, either technical or personal. He fights hard and clean. He fits into his share of the teamwork and plays a steady, hard game.

SAME LINE-UP FOR TIFFIN

The lineup Tiffin will use is still in doubt but it is thought it will be the same used last Friday against South. This is a strong team and have had good alibis for their two defeats but luckily Central realizes this and has not become over-confident of a victory.

The Central floor has been changed from a circle to an octagon. This makes it much easier to play on according to the team. Bleachers have been added and will easily accomodate the large crowd that is to see the game.

LEGION TO ACT IN BOXING

WHEELING, W. Va.—J. B. Nickerson, state commander of the American Legion today called a meeting of the executive board of which the question of legislation, looking to the control of boxing in West Virginia, will be taken up.

The session will be held at Charleston next Sunday. It is the plan of the legion to have the present session of the legislature pass a bill under which the legion would have control of boxing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—Willie Ritchie, former lightweight champion boxer, and member of Golden Gate Post, American Legion, will be matchmaker for the legion boxing exhibitions marking the revival of four-round amateur bouts in San Francisco, it was announced today. Date of the first exhibition has not been set.

JOE SERRA, COLUMBUS, OHIO, HEAVYWEIGHT WHO FIGHTS JOHNNIE NEWTON OF MANSFIELD MONDAY

JOE SERRA

Lima fight fans—Meet Joe Serra of Columbus Ohio, who is to battle Johnnie Newton of Mansfield, here next Monday night at Memorial Hall under auspices of the Shawnee Athletic Club with Walter Perry as promoter.

Joe has been traveling at a rapid pace and is hanging around the 158-pound mark.

As a boxer who tears into his opponents from the first gong, this promising Ohioan can't be beat.

Moreover, he has been wanting to fight Newton for some time and the Mansfield pug is just as anxious to get a swat at the Columbus fighter.

They are scheduled to fight 15 rounds, after Promoter Perry secured special consent of the Lima Boxing Commission.

K. OF C. STATE BOWLING TOURNEY STARTS HERE

The Fifth Annual K. of C. Bowling Tournament opened last night at the Recreation Alleys when the Paramounts, Giants, Aces, Ramblers and Nationals, all local teams, banged away at the little wooden men stacked up in a triangle shape at the far end of a sixty foot space of shining maple.

The recreation alleys, after three days of work, were in splendid shape for the commencement of what will be this city's first opportunity to have conducted a state bowling meet and before the some hundred teams who are slated to roll in the tourney will have completed the association schedule, the local alleys will likely have recorded some real regular scores.

The five clubs rolled last night, while not totalling the big counts that are looked for in tournament bowling due to the fact that the entries carried first season men on all the teams, nevertheless they gave a pretty good account of themselves as the scores indicate.

Eight sets of doubles and fifteen singles to be rolled tonight will complete the Lima howlers schedule.

Toledo and Cincinnati teams will follow up the local teams and big scores will start to make their appearance in the tournament program. Of the twenty-five clubs from the Queen City and the Lake town, will be seen some of the states best bowlers in action. The twenty-five five men teams from Toledo and Cincinnati will have the recreation alleys allotted to them exclusive commencing Saturday at 4 o'clock until their entries including five men, doubles and singles will have been rolled.

SELLS INTEREST IN STABLES

NEW YORK—Sam C. Hildreth, turfman has sold to Harry F. Sinclair, his partner, his interests in their racing stables, it was learned today. He retained only his favorite horse, Stromboli, and will remain as trainer of Sinclair's racers, which will appear under the name Rancocas Farms.

One of the most valuable horses included in the sale is Inchcape, the three year old, which was purchased last season for $150,000. Inchcape has suffered from a skin disease this winter, but is expected to be ready to race in the Kentucky Derby.

$30,000 OFFERED FOR GELDING

CLEVELAND—An offer of $30,000 for Prince Loree, said to be a record for a pacing gelding, was rejected by Captain David B. Shaw, it was learned today.

Prince Loree is said to be the world's double-gaited champion. His pacing mark for a mile is 2:04 and his trotting mark 2:03 1-4. He will be raced on the Grand Circuit again this season, Captain Shaw said.

BOB MARTIN IS GIVEN TAG

NEW YORK—Bob Martin, heavyweight boxing champion of the American expeditionary forces, was one of the seventy-three boxers to receive licenses from the state boxing commission today. Martin is matched for a bout with Bill Brennan here, the date of which has not been announced.

SOUTH HI JOURNEYS TO FINDLAY EXPECTING TO WIN FAST GAME

By GEORGE DEKEN.

(Lima News Staff Correspondent)

South Hi's basketball warriors are on the war path and intend to add another scalp to their belt when they meet the fast Fostoria Hi quintet tonight at Fostoria.

From present indications the game is going to be hard fought from the sound of the whistle, as South is out for a two-fold purpose; advancing in the Trolley League and getting revenge for the 104-0 defeated handed them by Fostoria in football last fall.

Coach Young has received some advanced dope on the style of play used by Fostoria, and for the past week has been practicing his squad on how to break up their opponents plays.

South's third team has been playing against the varsity, using the same style of offensive and defensive work as the Fostoria outfit has been using in games so far this season.

TRAIN IN OFFENSIVE

Coach Young has been putting the greatest part of his efforts in offensive work, training team members in close pass work and fast running shots. The coach is confident he has a fast combination, and Central has a right to worry over whether or not they will be able to hold South when the two teams meet a week from tonight, January 28.

Altho no definite dope has been passed around, the same line-up used in the Tiffin game will be started against Fostoria tonight. It follows: Brookhardt and Emmans or Hamilland forwards; Berger, center, and Hiland or Dally and Williams, guards.

JIM DUNN IS SATISFIED, HE SAYS

When the world's champions line up for the opening game of the 1921 season there probably won't be a new face to grace the local players' bench, for Jim Dunn, president of the Cleveland Indian baseball club, says that he is not after any new players.

Dunn says that he's perfectly satisfied with the old crew, the one which won not only the American league pennant last season but also the highest title of baseball — world's championship.

"WHY SHOULD I?"

"Why should I be looking for any new material to build up a combination that was strong enough to win a world's championship and that looked good enough to me to be able to repeat?" asked Dunn recently.

"I can't see a weak spot in the Indians' lineup in any department, so I'm not expecting to make any offers or deals.

"The Indian pitchers showed themselves to be the best combination of shutmen possessed by any team today. We have plenty of strength there.

"Our catchers are the best in the business, and where will you find a better collection of outfielders—both on the defense and attack — than are gathered around Tris Speaker.

PRAISE FOR SEWELL

"Joey Sewell has all the grit and ability needed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Chapman, so there's no hole in our infield. He's as promising a young infielder as any big league team can show, hitting well over the .300 for his first season in baseball.

"He stands up there at the plate and doesn't make any unnecessary motions in ducking bad ones. Nor does he hit at any bad ones. And when he makes fielding errors, he doesn't let them upset him."

Officials of the New York Yankees say they know nothing of the report that "Home Run" Baker, who ran a farm last season, is to return to the game next season.

It is intimated, however, that the Yanks have no room for him, and if he should come back he would be traded to some other club.

YOUNGSTER HAS NEW CONTRACT

BALTIMORE, Md. — Manager Jack Dunn of the Baltimore Internationals, has signed Frank L. Farrell, a six-foot-two youngster of Emporia, Pa., as an infielder.

LEGAL ACTION THREATENED IN MIX-UP

(BY HENRY L. FARRELL)

United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK — The first round of the Dempsey-Carpentier battle for the heavyweight boxing championship of the world, may be fought in the courts.

Harry S. Hechheimer, attorney and guardian of the boxers' interests untice that he may bring suit against tice that he may bing suits against any of the three promoters—Tex Rickard, William A. Brady and Charles Cochran—who seeks to withdraw his backing from the $500,000 match.

BRADY EFFACES SELF

As the matter stood today, Brady has definitely effaced himself, Cochran's position is uncertain and Rickard has declared his intention of going thru with the match, if he has to stage it single-handed. The latter expected to hear from Cochran during the day and expressed confidence that the London sportsman would abide by the original articles of agreement.

According to advices from London, Cochran is ill, but has authorized his secretary to state that he had not been officially informed of Brady's withdrawal and that he stands ready to proceed with the match under the stipulated arrangements providing a purse of $500,000.

BOUT IS PANNED

British newspapers, by the way, have seized upon the tangled situation to pan the match to their hearts content. For instance the Evening Standard is quoted as saying:

"If it is true the match has been called off the last word has been said in what skeptics have described as the 'world's best joke'. While anxious to see the fight take place, British sportsmen were sickened by the endless round of press agenting and purse boosting. Many bets were made months ago that the fight would never take place."

COLUMBUS, O.—J. C. Wilce, football coach at Ohio State University today had not decided whether he would accept the offer to head a course of football instruction at Columbia University next summer. He held the position last summer.

CHANGE DATE OF CENTRAL-SOUTH GAME

Because of the big American Legion basketball game in Lima next Friday night when they play the New York Nationals, the date of the Central-South game has been moved back to Thursday night so that the two games will not conflict.

Lima fans insisted on this, because hundreds were anxious to witness both games.

TO DECIDE ON GYM

The place of the Central-South game has not been decided. It is pointed out that the South gym is too small to accommodate the large crowd which is expected, and on the other hand that it would be unfair to play both of their games on Central's floor which would be a great advantage to them.

It is probable that the Y. M. C. A. floor will be selected, altho nothing definite has been decided.

If Central is selected, it is probable that the South squad will be given the privilege to practice there this coming week to familiarize themselves with the floor.

PLOT IS OLD, BUT "THE PLUNGER" IS FINE

Reviewer Gives You Straight Tip on George Walsh Picture, Now Showing

Current Bill at Orpheum Characterized as Fair—Directory of the Movies

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)

HONESTLY, between you and me, if we'd say that "The Plunger" is a typical George Walsh picture, we'd have told the whole story but you know how it is when you're supposed to write a review. They expect you to say a little more than that, so we will.

There's a nice old Wall street man, by the name of Houghton, who cares for naught in this life but his daughter and his honor. And he has a villian of a manager with devilish designs on both the daughter and the honor.

The villian manager nearly wins out—nearly. You see, he had not counted on the Chance Shuylers a young mischief who has risen from the ranks of office boy to capitalist in a few short years. His rise had left him dizzy but smiling and his dynamic energy was equaled only by his honest aggressiveness.

In his customary whirlwind fashion, Shuyler lands on the situation, which falls heavily, and when the dust has cleared away everything is beautiful, with the villian manager properly manacled in charge of officers of the law, approaching his eternal rest which is scheduled to come to him via the electric chair.

The daughter? Of course she appreciates all that young Shuyler has done for her, her bitterness towards him miraculously changes to love, and when she softly whispers his name 'Chance' he clasps her to his heart and ——certain.

Of such stuff are all Walsh dramas made. They are always peppy and always have a beautiful girl and in this particular case, Miss Virginia Valli is no exception. The others in the cast do good work and although the plot is so old it has gray hair, we're going to aprove entirely of "The Plunger."

It's playing at the Sigma.

The Orpheum

The bill being shown at the Orpheum the last half of this week contains several things of merit.

A delightful little farce comedy put on by Wilson Franklyn & Co., entitled "My Wife Won't Let Me" is a rip roaring offering that combines real humor and a risque situation to keep the audience laughing. The cast is splendid and the act is one of the best seen here this season.

Hillier and Schuller have a nonsensical offering which they call "Did She?" The title easily conveys the thought that there is nothing deep about the act. Some rare comedy makes their act one of the bright spots of the program.

The Four Palderons are Europe's Famous Lamp Jugglers, and do seemingly impossible stunts while balancing on lamps. An excellent closing number demonstrating that there are ladies in the business every bit as strong and muscular as the opposite sex.

Sinclair and Grey have an offering which combines songs and novel performance on bicycles.

Delbridge and Gremmer sing a few songs and tell some funny stories, which seemed to please mightily at the opening performances.

The bill is fair, just average entertainment.

NEW YORK — Price tendencies were distinctly downward at the active opening of today's stock market, steel shares leading the reaction. Crucible made an initial loss of a large fraction and this was immediately extended to two points.

Bethlehem Steel, American Car, Royal Dutch, Sears Roebuck, General Asphalt and Union Pacific also registered declines of 1 to 2 points. Motors and specialties, notably rubber issues were heavy. The few early advances were confined to the sugar group. Exchange on London was unaltered from yesterday's final quotations.

Steels, coppers, leathers, tobacco, chemicals and the utilities were carried down 1 to almost three points in the broader reaction of the first hour. Oils also became heavy, those issues being sold by traders on the effect in the prices of the crude product. From the lower levels there were rallies of 1 to 3 points. General Asphalt and Texas Pacific Coal and Oil guiding the recovery. The market failed to hold, however, prices breaking again before noon. Call loans opened and renewed over the week-end at 7 per cent and offerings of time money were small. British exchange improved, approaching its recent maximum figure.

Lacking the recent support of pool pools, the stock market today reacted irregularly in almost every quarter of the list. Sales approximated 650,000 shares.

The closing was heavy.

CARY VS. MATTRESS CO. CASE TAKEN UP ON APPEAL

The case of W. A. Cary against the Lima Mattress Co., has been appealed to common pleas court, from Justice Botkin's court. Cary instituted suit against the mattress company for $299 for work and freight. The mattress company filed a counter petition, in which they asked $187.50 for damages and negligence of Cary's truck in transporting and hauling 25 mattresses.

In Justice Botkin's court on December 24, Cary was allowed $121.72 and the Mattress company $69.75.

MEN AND MATTERS

CHICAGO — Wheat prices developed moderate strength today chiefly as a result of seaboard buying. Opening prices, which varied from unchanged figures to 1c lower, with March $1.68 to 1.68 3-4 and May $1.59 1-2 to 1.60 1-2 were followed by upturns all around to well above yesterday's finish.

Corn sympathized with the strength of wheat. After opening 1-4 off to 3-8c higher, including May at 68 1-4 to 68 3-4, the market scored a slight general gain.

Oats were dull and inclined to lag behind other cereals, starting 1-8c to 1-4c down, May 45 5-8 to 45 3-4, but later recovering.

Lower quotations on hogs tended to depress provisions.

The wheat close was heavy, 3 3-4 to 5 3-4c net lower with March $1.-64 1-2 to 1.65 and May $1.54 3-4 to 1.55.

Corn closed steady, unchanged to 1-4c lower with May 67 1-4 to 67 3-8.

Closing prices ranged as follows:

Wheat, March $1.64 1-2; May $1.54 3-4.

Corn, May 67 1-4; July 68 1-2.

Oats, May 43 5-8; July 43 5-8.

Pork, January $23.50; May $23.-35.

Lard, January $12.92; May $13.-65.

Ribs, January $11.82; May $12.-50.

CINCINNATI — Wheat, 1.96@1.98. Corn .70@.71. Oats, weak .43@.45. Rye, easier 1.68@1.70. Potatoes, home grown early Ohio's No. 1, 5.50@6.00. Hay, steady 20.00@25.75.

TOLEDO—Wheat, cash 1.86; March 1.86; May 1.82. Corn .69. Oats, .46½. Barley .73. Rye, No. 2, 1.58. Cloverseed, prime cash (1919) 12.35; (1920) 12.60; Jan. 12.60; Feb. 12.65; March 12.45; April 11.50 Alsike cash (1919) 15.00; (1920) 15.50; March 15.50. Timothy (1918) 3.00; (1919) 3.05; Jan. 3.20; Feb., March, April and May 3.30.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Mass. — The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:

"There has been a larger movement of wool, especially in the fine and medium order during the past fortnight and the market is showing a tendency to strengthen somewhat. The mills are getting a moderate volume of business on certain staple lines and are employing more help.

"The wool growers this week discussed in detail the questions of marketing the new clip and the tariff situation favoring the enactment of the emergency tariff bill very strongly and seeking for lower marketing costs all along the line."

TONICS BARRED FROM SOFT DRINK PLACES

CINCINNATI — Tonics, elixirs, "cold cures" and all such beverages or remedies containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol must disappear from the bars of all saloons and other soft drink places in Cincinnati.

This order was issued to the police force by Chief William Copelan today and the order was accompanied by a copy of the Crabbe act under which prosecution is promised for violators.

Thrift Week Every Week

The people who last year took our advice to make every week a Thrift Week are receiving full paid PREFERRED stock certificates this week. While they have been paying on a weekly basis, they have been receiving SEVEN PERCENT for their money.

Our Weekly Payment Plan buys the HIGHEST GRADE SECURITY, and you receive SEVEN PER CENT on every dollar you pay, which can be compounded if you desire.

SHORT SHAVINGS

"I t'anks yer kindly sir, for yer generosity"

"But I haven't given you any thing"

"Well, yer ain't goin' ter let me gratitood go ter waste, are yer?"

A New Yorker, one of the native born type, who rarely leaves the confines of the greater city, took a vacation last summer and went with one of the New York ball clubs on its trip west. He saw many strange sights.

On the return trip of the club stopped off at Buffalo and, as is the case with most New Yorkers the players persuaded their fellow traveler not to miss the opportunity.

He looked the folks over very carefully and returned to his hotel.

"Well what do you think of it for a wonderful sight?" asked one of the ball players.

"I'll say," said the New Yorker without undue enthusiasm "that she certainly throws a mean loop."

"Don't you think Mrs. Gaussip has a liquid voice?"

"Yes, the trouble is she neglects to turn off the tap."

Mother—Now, Bobby, was it you who ate all the white meat off this chicken?

Bobby—Well mother, to make a clean breast of it I did.

Wife—The doctor was very particular about knowing what we have to eat.

Husband—Wonder why? Does he expect us to invite him to dinner?

Baled Timothy Mixed, Clover and Alfalfa Hay at the sign.

"Shameful Neglect" Of Our Disabled Dough-Boys

NOT niggardliness but mismanagement is behind the fact that thousands of our disabled soldiers of the Great War "are still waiting, exploited, neglected, forgotten, for the draft of honor to be redeemed." The Public Health Service, according to Harold A. Littledale, of the New York Evening Post, is months behind in dealing with urgent appeals from disabled soldiers needing treatment, as is also the Bureau of War-Risk Insurance in payments. The Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph, quotes Col. Frederick W. Galbraith, Jr., National Commander of the American Legion, as saying that "10,000 disabled veterans are quartered in cellars, poor-houses, and insane asylums."

IS A CHILD'S LIFE WORTH $10 TO YOU?

When Mr. Herbert Hoover wrote to The Literary Digest [illegible] telling of the desperate condition of three and a half million children in Europe and of the threatened interruption of the work of his organization because its resources would be exhausted in January, he said that he had asked other American organizations to lift the further responsibility of this work from his shoulders but that up to that time none of them had felt able to assume the gigantic task.

The Literary Digest was profoundly stirred by the call of this great emergency and decided to consecrate its entire energy to the task of arousing the American people to uphold Mr. Hoover's hands in this life-saving work. We immediately published in our issue of October 30 an editorial appeal entitled "The Slaughter of the Innocents," called for prompt subscriptions by our own readers and Americans everywhere to the Child Feeding Fund urgently needed starting the Fund ourselves with a large cash contribution. On the very first appearance of this appeal President-elect Harding gave a wonderful impetus to the Fund by his splendid telegram of endorsement and his contribution of $5,500 to care for 550 starving children.

We published the appeal in more than three hundred leading newspapers throughout the United States and telegraphed to more than two thousand newspapers urging their editorial support which was royally given. Immediately following the nation-wide appeal which The Digest has continued intensively and without interruption every week for three months, the heart and mind, and proper guide of America responded to the call the members as well as the officers of other great benevolent organizations felt that this was also their opportunity, the difficulties which Mr. Hoover had previously experienced disappeared and he found it possible to conduct a consolidation of eight of the greatest relief organizations in the country for a combined campaign to collect the $20,000,000 needed to feed the starving children of Europe and to provide medical supplies and work.

State and city organizations were quickly formed in every part of the Union and the money began pouring in from American people who are now thoroughly aroused. Nearly half of the total $33,000,000 is now raised but the other half must be needed within the next 30 days to save this [illegible] for $10 saves the life of one child. Every American who reads on these words should not let a single day pass without sending a contribution for this life-saving work. We are asking all our readers to cooperate in every possible way with the local organizations and to send their contributions to their State Treasurers instead of direct to The Literary Digest because it is impossible to continue printing the long lists of contributors in the overcrowded columns of The Literary Digest.

Give generously and give promptly to this emergency relief to save the lives of Europe's starving children.

The name and address of your State Treasurer is

Foster Copeland, 243 N. High St., Columbus, Ohio

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week, January 22, 1921, presents facts that will astonish the American public and which have been incorporated by the American Legion in a dispassionate memorial to the President, the President-elect, the Congress, and the people of the United States. The causes of the present regrettable condition and a remedy for it are carefully shown.
